

Diapered in Public

Does the idea of wearing a big, bulky and comfortable diaper in public excite you? Do you smile as you imagine being changed by your loving parent on a changing table in a public restroom after an eventful day of being pushed around in your favorite stroller? Become confident of your ability to wear a diaper in public and crave to dress like the adorable little baby you have always fantasized about becoming.

Become proud of the fact that you love wearing and using a diaper and dressing like a toddler and find pleasure in telling others what a baby you desire to be in your perfect future as you show their diaper off to anybody that asks to see it. Remember that you love wearing a diaper under your childish clothing whenever you are out of your house and become uncomfortable and unhappy if you have to worry about finding a gross and intimidating adult bathroom in public because you forgot to bring a completely necessary and safe and protective diaper to keep you safe and protected. Think about how much you love dressing and acting like a baby in public and the fact that you prefer to be pushed in a stroller and changed at the public changing tables. Experience a thrill of excitement and pleasure and comfort whenever you wet and mess your diaper uncontrollably and unconsciously in public just like a little toddler would.

Listen to this file and overcome your fears of being the adorable toddler you were always meant to be in front of others. Find your most comfortable and safe and happy self in the natural pride and excitement that comes with wearing your diaper in public.
