The Adventurer's Cursed Quest

The mysterious Purple Plants

"Damn the weather's bad," Fred said while being annoyed as the rain started to fall from the sky. His backpack was heavy with all his equipment in it. It included a bow, quiver of arrows, rope, knife, flint, food, and water. All of which were packed tightly together so they wouldn't get wet or damaged by the rain. He had been walking for hours and they hadn't found anything useful yet.

It didn't help that it had rained in this area before. The ground was covered in mud making it hard to walk. "I should have taken a horse," Fred said to himself as he looked at the muddy path in front of him. It was either take the long way around which was paved or go through the grassy plains which was shorter but became muddy with all this rain that had been falling this whole week.

"I should have made camp earlier like I usually do, but noooooo you wanted to keep moving. Dammit! The village of Hooten shouldn't be that much further," Fred complained as he stopped and got out his map. This part of the forest wasn't very big so finding his destination shouldn't be hard if he knew what to look for.

Fred Wilhelmina, also known as the Lone Wolf, was assigned a quest to find a source of a mysterious illness that was plaguing the town of Hooten. So far he was having a hard time because the disease was not very strong and could easily pass between people. The only real sign they had of its existence was a few people started getting darker skin coloration and some odd body changes like getting pointy ears. But they still didn't know how to cure it or stop it.

But with this downpour, he would need to find shelter quickly or he would become unable to move properly. Luckily there was an old abandoned farmhouse just up ahead that looked like it hadn't been used in years. It was the perfect place for him to make a temporary camp.

"Finally got some shelter!" Fred said as he ran towards the farmhouse. It was pretty big and had some holes in the roof making it look like it might leak. That was fine though; he doubted he would be staying long anyway.

"Okay hopefully I can set up camp here without any issues," Fred said as he opened his pack and took out his tent. Then he opened his bag of supplies and began to prepare food and drink. He needed to get something inside him or he would pass out again due to lack of food and exhaustion.

He brought out a few pieces of jerky and a bottle of water. And then he placed them next to a small fire he had started. It was raining really hard now and he couldn't use his fire starter to light the fire. He had to get creative.

Fred took out one of the flints he kept in his pack and made a spark with it. After he did that he struck two rocks together to create sparks. Next, he took the end of the rope he had and lit the end. It took a while but eventually, flames started coming from the rope. He put his first piece of jerky on a stick and stuck it in the flames. After he did that he took a big sip of water and waited until the meat was cooked.

The jerky tasted good but it burned his mouth a little. Fred ate the rest of the jerky and drank more water until it cooled off. He had a bit of the jerky left so he tossed it in his bag to save it for later. Just in case of an emergency.

After eating he put away his equipment and went in his tent.

"Gods! I'm soaked to the bone," Fred said as he was getting comfortable in his tent. He grabbed his blanket and wrapped it around him. He was glad he'd decided to bring it. If not he would have probably gotten hypothermia from the cold rain and soaked clothes.

His tent was made of a thick canvas cloth that was waterproofed. The door was made of leather so it would last a long time even in a storm. It also had a flap for privacy and it was large enough to fit most people in it. The walls were thin so he could hear everything going on outside.

While he was in his tent he found himself beginning to drift off. He was tired after all the walking and he just wanted to sleep. Before he knew it he was out like a light.

Fred was sleeping for a couple of hours and if he was awake he would have noticed this strange purple vine that sprouted from the ground next to him. He wouldn't have known what it was but he would have felt it crawling across his body. Sliding under his clothes and over his skin. It was soft like silk so he barely felt it. As the vine slowly coursing its way up his leg he groaned in his sleep and rolled over.

This helped the purple vine slide up his back and crawl over his shoulders. It slithered down his neck and onto his chest. It was poking his nipples and injecting something into his pecs causing him to moan again in his sleep. His hips pushed against the ground and the vine moved underneath him. It slithered up his belly and pressed against his manhood. Feeling the warm hardness he shuddered at the feeling.

Then he felt it. Something slid down between his legs. It was slimy and hard. He tried to push it away but it didn't work. It squished against his opening and rubbed it up and down before injecting more of whatever it was inside him. Then he felt it squirming inside his ass.

Fred moaned louder and reached for his cock. He wanted to touch himself but his hands were restrained behind his back. The vines had wrapped themselves around his wrists and ankles.

"No, don't struggle you'll attract unwanted attention," a female voice whispered in his ear. He felt something pushing against his lips. "Open your mouth," she said as it pushed itself into his mouth.

Fred was still in an unconscious state and thought he was dreaming a weird dream.

It was hot and tasted odd. He swallowed it and moaned as the thing slid in and out of his mouth.

Soon he felt a similar thing happening in his ass as the vine pushed deeper inside him. They were soft and smooth. He could feel them moving inside his body, slowly but surely changing him as they injected more of their essence inside his stomach and ass. Then his arms and legs were free and he was able to move again as the purple vines slipped away in the dead of night.

Fred moaned as he continued to dream. He had no idea how much time passed before he woke up.

When Fred finally woke up it was several hours later. He felt itchy and uncomfortable. His skin had some red spots on it like mosquito bites.

"Great... Bed bugs..." Fred muttered as he sat up in his tent and pulled his shirt off to see how bad the rash was. Then he looked around to see if he could spot any of the bugs that might have caused this in the first place. But there was nothing obvious.

Fred stood up and put his shirt back on. He wasn't sure why he bothered wearing it if he was still getting bit by bugs. And as he stood up he felt a strange itch coming from inside his body.

"Oh, man! I don't feel right," Fred said out loud as he moved his arms and stretched his back in hopes to try to relieve the itch. It felt like it was coming from the pit of his stomach.

"This has gotta be the weirdest feeling. Maybe the jerk was going bad? But I don't think I need to puke. Gah! I need to get to a real bed," Fred said as he scratched at the area. He heard a noise outside his tent and stopped scratching.

SNAP! TWEET! TWEET! Tweet. tweet...

Fred heard a bird panic and flew out of the run-down house.

"Sigh! It's just a bird. I need to pack up and get to the town." Fred said as he walked out of the tent.

He stretched out his legs and rubbed his neck. Then he realized something. Something was off. His nipples seemed erect and were poking through his shirt. He let out a yelp and covered his chest. "No way!" he said.

When he grabbed his chest that's when he felt the soreness deep underneath his nipples. Fred gave out a grunt as he pinched a nipple between his fingers. It hurt but not too much. He realized he needs to stop staring at his sore chest and concentrate.

Fred put on his tunic and armor and packed his stuff. He had to keep moving or he would be late for the meeting he was supposed to have with the town's guard.

"I hope they don't mind me being late," Fred said as he broke down his camp and packed it away before continuing to the town.

Fred was finally able to see his surroundings now since it stopped raining but it was still overcast and dark clouds were overhead. Fred looked around the forest and took note of his surroundings.

He had been walking for a few minutes before he saw the village. He walked into the town and entered the inn.

"Finally. I'm exhausted." Fred said as he approached the counter. A girl with brunette hair and blue eyes was working there. She smiled at him.

"Welcome to the Blue Owl Inn. What can I get you?" The girl said.

"Umm, a room, please. And food." Fred said.

"Sure thing. I'll go grab your key and take you to your room. Follow me." She said as she walked over to the rack behind the desk and picked out the key.

Fred followed her down the hall and up some stairs. They reached a door and the girl opened it.

"Here we are. Your room is number 3. Enjoy." The girl said as she closed the door behind him.

Fred walked into the room and looked around. It was the size of a small one-room apartment with a bathroom attached.

"This is nice," Fred said as he removed his backpack and laid it on the bed.

'Man! My joints feel sore.' Fred thought as he rubbed at his hips and knees. 'Maybe I should rest for a bit first? No, I need to eat something before meeting the village guard then I'll go out and start my search.' Fred said as he went to the bathroom and washed up.

Fred returned to his room and sat on his bed. He opened his journal and started writing about his sexy dream... errr, he meant journey so far.

"It's amazing how fast the days go by when you're busy all the time," Fred said as he finished his entry and set the book down.

He still couldn't believe how sore his body has become. 'Trudging through the rain must have done it.' Fred thought. 'Dammit! I know I should eat but my body isn't happy with me. I guess I'll try to rest here for a couple of hours.'

'Yeah. That's what I'll do.' Fred said as he lay down on the bed.

Fred has some strange dreams. In them, he sees a beautiful woman that looks like a cross between a human and a dark elf. She has long white hair and bright red lips. Her skin is tan but not black. Her eyes are like deep pools of violet and her ears are pointed.

She keeps telling Fred that he will be joining her and he tells her no and runs away from her. All the while she's chasing him and Fred keeps running until he wakes up.

Fred woke up in his bed with a stinging sensation on his chest. He opened his eyes and looked down.

"What the hell?!" Fred said as he jumped out of bed. He ran to the bathroom and looked at his chest.

"Oh, man! What happened to me?" Fred said as he threw open the shower curtain.

He stepped under the warm water and scrubbed his chest with soap. He looked over at his chest and noticed that the area was darker than usual. Like his chest was tanner than normal. His nipple was also hard and it hurt.

'W-What with this? Is my chest bruised?' Fred thought as he continued to wash his body. But the dark tan skin wasn't going away.

"Damn! What type of bug bite causes this type of reaction?! What if I'm dying?!" Fred said as he washed his face.

After not seeing any changes Fred decided to not worry about what's been happening to him and thought this was nothing more than a stupid rash from the bug bites and hoped they would go away in time.

Fred dried off and put on his usual adventure clothing which consisted of a tunic with a hood, light armor, and leather boots. He grabbed his sword belt and headed downstairs to go to the tavern.

When he reached the tavern he was greeted by the smells of cooking meat. He saw the cook standing behind an open oven door and felt his stomach growl in hunger.

"Good morning, Sir! If you are staying with us you get a complimentary meal," The cook said as she turned back around and grabbed a piece of bread from inside the oven. "Help yourself."

Fred took a seat at the bar and looked around. There were only two other customers in the room: a middle-aged man and a young boy sitting at a table. Both appeared to be adventurers just like him.

"Thank you, I'll have whatever the house special is," Fred said to the cook.

The cook nodded and turned to gather a plate of meat and root vegetables for Fred.

Fred sat across from the cook at the bar and waited patiently. He held his journal close to him and started to write in it again.

'Strange bug bites appeared on me yesterday. Now I have a bruised and swollen chest with aching joints. And it aches the most around my hips and my pelvis feels tight. What is happening to me?' Fred thought as he shifted in his seat. Trying to ignore the itching feeling inside him.

"Ah! So you're the adventurer that accepted the quest about finding the cause of the mysterious curse that's changing some of the towns folk into dark elves? I'm the cook and bartender, Wisteria. By the way." Wisteria said as she set a plate of food before Fred.

Fred looked at the plate and saw that it had beef stew, parsnips, bread, and a tall glass filled with mead.

"Oh wow! This looks good!" Fred said as he took a spoonful of the stew.

'Gods! This is the best-tasting stew ever!' Fred thought as he slurped down another bite.

Wisteria smiled as she watched Fred inhale everything in front of him.

"Thank you very much," Fred said as he finished his meal. "So you said there's a curse infecting the townspeople? Where exactly are they getting it from?"

"Aye! It started about a month ago. About one-quarter of the town is infected. Their skin becomes a dark tan and they grow pointed ears. They also become very aggressive in a sexual way. The captain of the guard has been trying to isolate them but we are clueless about what is causing it to begin with. There are also rumors flying around that the curse has spread to other towns and villages. But it seems we are the only town getting affected."

"Hmm..." Fred said as he closed his journal and set it aside. "I'll take a look around. I'm sure I'll be able to help you with your problem."

"Thank you. I'm looking forward to seeing your triumph and ridding this curse from the town."

After Fred finished his breakfast he exited the inn and went straight for the local barracks. To see some of the infected townspeople.

'I should have taken an archer class or something. The only weapon I know how to use well is my sword. I have a feeling that I might need to use a ranged weapon for this quest,' Fred thought as he walked into the barracks and looked around.

There were two soldiers standing guard outside the room. They saluted him as he approached the door.

'Well, that was fast. I wonder who told them that I was here?' Fred thought as he knocked on the door.

"Enter." A voice said through the door.

Fred opened the door and saw a large muscular man sitting behind a desk. He wore dark green armor with golden plates covering his arms and chest.

"So you're the one we've been waiting for. I'm Major Krenner. You can call me sir." The soldier said with a large smile.

"My name is Fred Wilhelmina. The cook from the inn said that the townspeople were isolated in here." Fred said as he stood at attention.

"Indeed they are. And you don't need to stand at attention like that. You're not in my military. Just relax and sit down." Major Krenner said as he motioned for Fred to sit down.

Fred sat down and crossed his legs. 'Hm... This makes me feel excited being in front of a military man.' Fred thought as he felt his chest swell up with pride. His leather armor seemed to tighten up as well.

'This will be interesting.' Fred thought as he looked at the major with lustful eyes. 'Why does the major look so good?'

Major Krenner gave Fred a stern look. "Why are you staring at me like that?! Pull your head out of your ass and get your mind on the mission. I don't care if you like men or women but this isn't the place or time for playing with yourself."

"Oh! Sorry sir." Fred said as he blushed in shame.

'Why did I stare at the Major like that? I'm not gay! Come on Fred!' he thought as Fred cursed himself.

"Well, I'll just go ahead and tell you what needs to be done. We need to find the cause of the infection and find a way to reverse what's happened to the people. If you want to interview some of the people I have them locked up inside that room over there... But a word of warning, just watch your back. They like to get handsy with men and women alike. Be careful." Major Krenner said as he got up from his chair.

Fred looked at the door where the major had gone. Then he looked back at the soldiers.

'I guess I better follow him.' Fred thought as he followed Major Krenner to the room with all of the infected people.

'How bad could it be?' Fred thought as he entered the room.

He didn't notice that there were three infected people there until he walked closer.

They were standing up against the wall near a window. They noticed Fred and started moving towards him.

"Oi! Get away from me!" Fred yelled as he tried to push them back.

One of the infected people grabbed ahold of Fred's arm and pulled him closer to her. She smelled like sweat mixed with honey.

"Please... I just want to be free..." The woman said as she placed her head on Fred's shoulder.

"Let me go!" Fred said as he struggled against the girl's grip.

"Back off him miss. He's here to help." The major said as he stepped between Fred and the infected woman.

"I'm sorry... I didn't mean to hurt you. Please let me go..." The dark elf said as tears rolled down her cheeks.

"Just stay still... He wants to ask you questions about the illness." The major said as he pushed the woman back.

"I told you I don't know. None of us know! We're just trying to survive!" The infected woman that look like a dark elf said as she glared at Fred.

"If you know anything please tell me. Like what do you all do for a living?" Fred said as he took out his journal.

"Huh? We're all farmhands. Well except for the big guy over there and I. I'm a tailor and he's a blacksmith." The infected woman said with a confused look.

'That makes sense. So it seemed like it happened out in the fields?' Fred thought as he wrote in his journal.

"So did you help in the farm fields as well, Miss?" Fred asked as he looked at the woman he was talking to.

"It's Miss Yoon for you." The woman said as she smiled at Fred.

"Ahh... I'm sorry if I insulted you." Fred said as he bowed his head in apology.

Yoon stared at Fred and licked her lips. "Hehe! You're a cutie. I haven't worked in the fields. The only vegetation I handle is my potted flowers. So how about it? What are you really after?" Yoon asked as she looked up at Fred.

Fred couldn't help but stare at her body. Her breasts were big and perky looking, her hips were round and curved as they struggled to stay within her dress. Her skin was dark and smooth as she licked her lips again.

"I would like to know more about the illness," Fred said as he looked at Yoon.

'She sure is a beauty. I wish I could be as good-looking as her.' Fred thought to himself.

"Hmm? It just started out of nowhere. My breasts started to swell, my hips got wider and my complexion changed within a couple of days. Now I look like this." Yoon said as she showed Fred her busty chest.

"D-Do you feel anything else? You know...like hot flashes or cold sweats?" Fred asked as he felt his own body heat up.

"No... But I've never been so horny in my life! I have trouble stopping myself. Luckily there's some big strong man trapped in here with me. He can keep me satisfied." Yoon giggled as she looked at Fred.

"Oh? Is your boyfriend in there with you?" Fred asked as he pointed at the large muscular man who looked like a dark elf behind her.

"No... But he's turned into a friend with benefits. I never thought that I'd need someone like him. I always wanted to get married and start a family." Yoon said as she put her hand on Fred's shoulder.

Fred blushed as he looked away from Yoon.

"D-Does anyone else have anything to add?" Fred asked as he looked around the room.

"Yeah! I think you look funny getting fucked by us cutie!" Said another infected man in the corner of the room while another grabbed Fred's shoulder.

"You guys are gross! Just stop already!" Fred yelled as he pushed the man back.

"Damn... If I knew you were so cute! I might not have gone through with it!" The man said as he grinned.

"Alright, that's enough out of you lot! Leave the poor boy alone." Major said as he pushed the group back.

"We just want to play with the adventurer." One of the infected men said as he grabbed at Fred's plump ass.

"Ow! Fuck off!" Fred yelled as he kicked the man.

The man laughed and stood up. "Hey, I get the hint now! You're the sexy one!"

Fred turned to leave the room. He wasn't going to get any more info from this lot.

"Wait! Don't go yet! We should have a little fun before we part ways!" Yoon said as she saw Fred go through the door.

"I'm not in the mood for this!" Fred said as he stomped down the hall.

Fred came out of the barracks and walked around to a secluded spot. 'W-Why am I feeling so excited when they were touching me? My butt feels a little more jiggy?!' Fred thought to himself.

He looked at the adventurers and found a few men staring at him. His heart started pounding and he was having trouble trying to hold back the urge to touch himself. Once he realized what he was doing it made him uncomfortable.

"Hey! You two! Stop staring!" Fred yelled at the men.

The men laughed and turned away from Fred, making him embarrassed by how he acted.

"Sorry about that... It was probably my imagination," Fred said as he tried to calm down as best as he could.

'Okay, so most of the people that get infected were farm hands?' Fred thought to himself as he continued walking.

"A-Are you alright? You seem kinda upset." A woman said as she came up behind Fred.

Fred turned around to see an attractive woman with long black hair and red eyes. She had a beautiful face and a perfect figure. He also couldn't help but feel he heard her voice before. Fred just couldn't recall when he heard her voice.

Fred blushed as he looked away from the woman.

"Ugh! That's what I get for being rude! Hello!" The woman said as she held her hand out to Fred.

"Um... Hi..." Fred said as he took her hand.

"My name is Selena. I'm a healer from the town." Selena said as she smiled.

"Nice to meet you. I'm Fred." Fred shook her hand.

"So what brings you to our little community? Are you an adventurer as well?" Selena asked as she looked at Fred's outfit.

"Yes. I'm looking for the source of the strange disease that's spreading throughout the town." Fred said as he looked around the small farming village.

"Hmm... I don't know if you'll be able to find anything useful here. Where are you heading?" Selena said as she looked around the town.

Fred couldn't help but feel a warm sensation between his legs. He felt like his body wanted to flirt and tease everyone.

"I'm headed to the farm fields near the forest," Fred said as he looked at Selena.

Selena blushed as she stared at Fred. His face was looking cuter as he was unaware of the changes happening to him.

"I've been there. It's a pretty boring place. The crops are all overgrown because no one was tending them." Selena said as she looked away from Fred.

'Gah! Come on Fred! Get ahold of your urges!' Fred thought to himself as he swayed his hips which seemed to be growing larger as time went by.

"Well, let's head towards the farms then," Fred said as he turned and walked towards the main street.

As Fred was walking he noticed his hips swayed more and more. His butt felt soft as if it was filled with cotton. Causing his trousers to press against his ass cheeks.

"Huh? Hey, Selena? Do my hips look big?" Fred said as he tilted his head to the side.

"Hmmm? No... They look great!" Selena said with a grin.

He quickly turned away from her before she could say anything else. He didn't want her to notice how much he liked hearing her compliment him. But something was bothering him.

'Why am I acting so weird? I-I haven't been like my typical self ever since I slept in my tent last night.' Fred thought to himself as he continued walking. Feeling his butt jiggle with every step.

"Oh, hey Selena! Can you take me to the farm fields? I realize I have no clue where they are," Fred asked as he turned to Selena.

"Sure thing! Follow me," Selena said as she took the lead and walked down the main road.

Fred nodded and followed Selena.

"Oh! Sorry if I'm prying too much but what sort of job did you used to have?" Selena asked as she led Fred to the fields.

"I used to be a farmer. My family tended to the field. And I did not want any of it. So I became an adventurer when I was able to buy my first sword," Fred said as he shrugged.

"Ah! I see... I've never been a farmer myself. My family were merchants." Selena said as she smiled at Fred.

"Really? That must have been difficult traveling all around the kingdom." Fred said as he kept his eyes on Selena.

"Not really. Being a merchant has its benefits." Selena said as she looked away from Fred and started walking again.

Fred stopped to look at her. She was such a beautiful woman. He could stare at her all day.

Fred blushed and looked away from Selena. He couldn't believe how easy it was to talk to her but why was he still nervous around her?

"I hope you don't mind me asking but... Why did you come to this place?" Fred asked as he looked at Selena.

"That's a good question. When I came by here I could not help but want to settle down. I don't know if I want to stay here forever but I like it... Not the most exciting answer I know," Selena said as she looked at Fred.

Fred nodded and let out a sigh. 'It must be nice finding a place you want to call home. But with my job that's impossible for the moment.'

"Well, there are the fields. Do you need anything else, Fred?" Selena said as she smiled at him.

"Do you want to join me in the fields?" Fred asked as he looked at Selena.

"Dress in this? Haha! Sorry, but I'm not an adventurer like you are. I can watch you from here if you like?" Selena said as she chuckled.

Fred sighed and shook his head.

"No. I've taken up enough of your time. Thank you, Selena." Fred said as he put his journal back in his bag and readied his sword as he began walking towards the field.

"Okay! Don't be a stranger! And come back to say hi to me!" Selena yelled out to Fred.

He turned and waved to her before heading into the overgrown field.

As he walked he felt his feet moving faster than they should be. His hips were swaying more and more as he walked. The feeling of his pants pressing against his ass cheeks made him want to groan out loud.

His cock was getting hard from just thinking about Selena. He hoped she would ask him to come back once his quest was finished.

'Gods! I've become so horny!' Fred thought to himself as he continued walking through the field.

Fred was looking at a farm field. He was hoping to find something that might be causing this curse or disease. The problem was he had no clue what the source was.

"Well looks like I'm farming again. Sigh... I really don't like doing farm work but the bulk of the townsfolk worked in these fields." Fred said as he sighed.

Fred walked through the rows of wheat. Wasn't quite harvest season yet. So the crops weren't ready to be taken off the field. But since no one was tending to them they slowly were growing wild.

"Hmm? The wheat is coming in thick and fast. I wonder if it got infected too?" Fred wondered aloud.

He went to grab a handful of wheat and noticed the plants were growing strangely.

"Hm? What's this?" Fred wondered aloud.

Fred picked up the plant and inspected it closer. There was no doubt about it. The plants were slowly changing color with a purplish hue.

"This is odd... I've never seen this before." Fred said as he thought back to his training.

Fred remembered one of his teachers telling him that plant life changes colors depending on their environment and what they're being exposed to.

"I remember my teacher saying that this happens when plants are being affected by certain types of magic. This must be the source of the disease." Fred said as he continued down the rows.

He noticed another plant that was different than the rest. It looked like a purple root vegetable.

"Huh? I've never seen a root like this before. It almost looks like a magical root." Fred said as he crouched down to examine the plant more closely. He touched it and felt an energy pulsing through the plant.

"Hmm..." Fred murmured to himself.

Fred grabbed the root and pulled but it wouldn't break. The plant was too tough.

"Ugh... Damn." Fred cursed as he struggled to pull it out.

This purple root kind of looked like a parsnip but was way more rubberier than your average root vegetable. And no matter how hard Fred tried to pull it out, his fingers kept sliding off.

"What the hell is this thing?! It's so slippery but I can't get a grip on it," Fred exclaimed as he grew frustrated.

He grabbed the purple root again and pulled on it. He noticed that it was getting firmer in his hands.

"Oh! That's a good sign!" Fred said as he started pulling harder and harder.

He was hoping it wouldn't take that much more to pull it out but it refused to budge! Not only that but with each tug on the root it got firmer and bigger.

"Wait a minute... How is this thing getting bigger?! Geez! This thing is really getting on my nerves." Fred wondered aloud.

Fred suddenly realized that the root was standing on its own and looked to be about 16 inches tall.

"W-Wow! This is amazing!" Fred said as he watched the root grow in front of his eyes.

It had a peculiar shape to it. It looked like a cucumber but it looked almost like cock. Which made him shudder at the thought of how some women could take something this big inside them without breaking a sweat.

Fred took a step back and looked at the roots. Then he noticed that all around the base of the root were growing mushrooms.

"Dammit! I don't want to cut this thing because I need to know what the source is. And if I cut it. The mana that is making it grow might recede deeper into the ground. Then I'll be back at square one," Fred said as he sighed.

He knew his only options were to pull it out or dig it out. Cutting it might cause the root to shrivel up into nothing if it loses its mana.

"Okay... Here goes nothing." Fred said as he placed one hand on the root and grasped it with his other.

Fred pulled as hard as he could and got nothing. He then tried pulling with both hands and still got nowhere.

"Alright, let me try something else," Fred said as he gripped the root tighter and shook it from side to side but all this did was make it grow longer as it almost reached the height of his waist.

And unknown to Fred. The root started releasing a magical pheromone in the air. And left a sweet scent in his nose.

'Augh! Keep pulling on it!' Fred's mind screamed at him as he strained to pull the root out of the ground.

As Fred pulled harder and harder the roots started to heat up and emit a sweet scent as it began to glow bright purple.

Fred's heart was racing as he continued to pull on the root. But he couldn't seem to get a good grip on it no matter how hard he tried.

"What the hell is going on!?" Fred yelled as he continued to struggle against the root. And Fred's body was changing under the strain.

His dick started to shrink while his hips became more feminine. His shoulders shrank and his chest began to develop.

When Fred finally released the root he felt like he just ran a marathon.

"Augh! Oh! What the hell?" Fred shouted as he felt his arousal building inside of him.

Fred could feel his leather armor rubbing against his chest. While his once proud manhood slowly turned into womanhood.

"Oh god!" Fred moaned softly as he tried to resist what was happening to him.

Fred's mind went blank as he looked down at his body.

"M-My body feels funny?! Why did this happen to me?!" Fred cried as he tried to resist the changes.

He could feel the tip of his cock turning into a clit.

"No! Stop it!" Fred yelled as he fought to keep his manhood.

But it was useless. Before he knew it Fred was on her knees in front of the towering purple root. Her soft breasts jiggled under her leather armor as she looked up at it.

The root had been filled with a potent aphrodisiac that made it irresistible to anyone. And Fred was caught in its grasp.

"Naugh! I-I don't want to suck it! Naugh... No..." Fred protested weakly as she leaned forward and brought her lips to the root. Her voice started sounding like a girl's voice and her face became more feminine as well. As her cheeks grew fuller and her lips plumped up.

Fred gasped as her tongue snaked out from between her lips and licked the root. She then stuck her tongue out and wrapped it around the root.

'N-No! It tastes so good! I must resist! Aungh!'

Fred groaned as she opened her mouth and engulfed the root completely. She started sucking on it greedily like a hungry child.

Fred sucked harder and faster as if trying to get her fill before the root ran out of mana.

As Fred continued to suck on the root she felt her hips start to twitch and quiver. It was a strange feeling for her because this was the first time she has ever experienced a stimulated pussy.

Fred's body seemed to be responding to the root without her consent.

She stopped sucking for a moment and looked at the root. Then she brought her gaze back to her own crotch as she saw that her trousers were wet from her pussy juices.

Fred was moaning softly now as she felt her body respond to the root's magic.

She quickly moved her hand down and grabbed hold of her pussy. A damp patch formed in them as her arousal increased.

'Oh! Gods! This is what women have to deal with!? Aunh! This is unjust! Naugh! I'm not a woman!' Fred thought as she started grinding her hips against her fingers.

Fred brought her other hand under her armor to her breast and pinched one of her nipples through her tunic.

Fred's breathing was getting heavier as she felt her climax building deep inside of her.

Just as she was about to release from her climax, a vine sprouted out behind Fred and wrapped itself around her arm.

"Whoa!" Fred screamed as she tried to pull free.

Another vine got her other arm and started to wrap itself around her leg. Soon Fred was being held by two vines.

Fred was struggling to break free, but she wasn't very strong and the roots were a lot stronger than her.

"Let go! Let go! You can't have me!" Fred cried as she tried to kick out at the roots.

That was when a third vine sprouted out from the ground and went straight for the waistband of her trousers.

Fred gasped as she felt something warm penetrate her clothes.

It was then that a fourth vine appeared from the earth and wrapped itself around her neck.

"No! Not my neck!" Fred cried as she desperately struggled in vain to stop the vine from choking her.

It tightens a bit until Fred stopped struggling and eased up on her so she gets the hint that this plant is in charge.

"Oh fuck! What the hell? Why are they attacking me!?" Fred demanded as she tried to look down at her body.

Her face was no longer masculine. In fact, she looked prettier than most of the women on the planet, with her features becoming rounder and more feminine.

Fred gasped as she looked at her chest. Her breasts had grown bigger and puffed up. They were now larger than her head and looked like they were about to burst out of her armor.

She didn't even have time to appreciate how sexy she looked before two of the roots pulled her trousers off.

Fred yelped as she felt a warm sensation run up her thighs and onto her pelvis.

She gasped as her new pussy was exposed to the air for the first time.

Fred moaned as she felt a vine slide between her folds and enter her hole.

"Ah!" Fred grunted as she tried to push it away.

But the vines were just too strong and started to turn her rear end towards the purple root.

"Oh, gods! No! Stop! Aaah!" Fred cried out as the vines bent her over and as the purple root moved in closer to her needy pussy.

Fred gasped as the root slid inside of her. She felt hot pleasure course through her body.

"Aah! Fuck! Not my pussy! Please! God! Make them stop! Pleaaase!" Fred begged as she tried to fight the vines.

Fred gasped as her mind started to become fuzzy as she was overpowered by the root's magic.

Fred could feel herself being consumed by the root and its power as it started pumping in and out of her pussy.

Fred moaned loudly as she felt the root move inside her. Hitting her G-spot in just the right way to send waves of pleasure running through her body.

Fred gritted her teeth as she fought back against this foreign pleasure. A pleasure that just kept building and eroding away her willpower to resist.

When the root was getting closer to her womb, Fred realized that she couldn't beat the vines.

Fred gasped as the root hit her cervix and pushed deeper.

"Gods! It feels so good! So warm!" Fred groaned as she was lost in ecstasy.

She arched her back as the root pumped in and out of her quicker.

And the more she arched her back the more her leather armor strained against her growing boobs and squeezed them together as her tit slowly started bulging out.

Fred grunted as the orgasm built up within her, building to an explosion.

"Fuck! Oh fuck!" She cried out as she felt herself let loose.

POP! POP! TEAR!

The straps on her armor started to give way under her growing weight. The leather armor slowly started to tear apart until finally it ripped completely open and fell off of her.

Fred gasped as she looked down at her body seeing her massive breasts swaying free from the confinements of her old armor. Her tunic was the only thing that was keeping whatever modesty she had left as the purple root pumped faster making her shake and sway with each thrust.

She had long flowing purple hair and big golden eyes. Her ears started looking like an elf's and her nose became thinner and pointed. And all of it happened so fast that Fred didn't even have time to react.

She noticed three other vines coming out of the ground and wrapped themselves around her legs and lifted her off the ground.

Fred gasped as she felt a second root touch the inside of her anus making her cum again.

"Ngh! Gods! What the hell? How can I be getting horny from this?" Fred groaned as he felt another wave of pleasure wash over her.

Fred gasped as the third root joined the first one and started to pump in and out of her pussy.

"Aungh! Aunh! AUNH! AUNGH! FUCK! THIS IS MADNESS!" Fred yelled out as she clawed at the ground trying to escape the vines.

But it was useless and the more she struggled against them the more the vines came closer to her womb.

Fred screamed as the vines reached her womb and pushed inside.

"G-goddess! Please! Don't! I'm not ready yet! Nnnngh!" Fred whined as the vines pumped in and out of her tight box and anus.

The first purple root started to glow brighter as it pumped in and out of her pussy.

It wasn't long before Fred felt something gush inside her as the root unloaded its seed.

"Mmph! OH! OH, MY GODS! AAUUUNNHHHH!" Fred grunted as her muscles tightened around the roots.

The vines continued to pump their life-giving juices into her womb as they tried to make her pregnant.

And then she felt a tingle deep inside her as the glowing purple essence enters her body.

"Gods!" Fred moaned as she realized what this meant. "I can't get pregnant! This isn't possible! Are these fucking trees!?" Fred asked in shock.

She thought of how much trouble she would've been if her father found out that she got turned into some kind of monster.

After a minute the purple root pumped the last drop of its essence into her before it stopped glowing and withered away into dust.

"Ohh... Oh... W-WHOA! Oof...!"

Thud!

Fred came crashing down face first to the ground kicking up dust and dirt as the vines that were suspending her in the air suddenly withered away and turned to dust.

"Ow...! What the hell?" Fred cried out as she lay there on the ground for a moment catching her breath.

Luckily her boobs absorbed most of the fall or else she could've broken her nose.

She felt dizzy and weak from being upside down for so long.

'What happened? Why was I released?' Fred wondered as she sat up and looked around the wheat field.

She noticed the purple color in the wheat started to fade away and had gone back to its usual yellow color.

"Huh? The mana that was affecting the crops is gone? Oh! Mmmmh!" Fred felt a cool sensation emitting from her pelvis that seems to be spreading outward across the rest of her body.

Fred tried to stand up but her legs were still wobbly from the strain of being fucked and she collapsed onto her hands and knees.

Fred groaned as she felt the cooling sensation spread through her body.

"Huh? A-Are my veins glowing?" Fred blinked in surprise as she saw the glow of purple light in her veins located in her forearm and watched it spread.

She quickly took off the glove on her other hand to see the same thing happening there too.

"Wait! I think I'm starting to turn into a Dark Elf!" Fred panicked as she stood up slowly.

Fred felt her breasts grow larger and bigger with each passing moment.

She opened the front of her tunic to take off her shirt and revealing her large round breasts.

Fred gasped as she noticed her nipples growing longer and darker.

Her hips grew wider as she felt her waistline tightened. Her butt was now bigger and plumper.

And her skin started getting darker as her veins glowed with the purple hue of the mana that was infecting her.

Fred watched as the glow went all over her body like a rash of purple light.

Fred began to panic as she felt a cooling sensation spread from her crotch outward.

"AAAHH! WHAT THE HELL!? Nnnngh! My boobs are huge! GAAAAAAAH! And my ass is big too!" Fred cried out in frustration.

Her bust grew to the size of her head.

And soon enough she could feel her two large dark nipples on her tits becoming super sensitive.

Fred ran her hands through her long purple hair, which now fell past her waist. She sighed in relief at how soft and smooth it felt.

"Mmmmm..." Fred moaned as she felt her pussy start to grow wet.

A cool tingle spread up her thighs and down her legs as the glowing purple mana spread throughout her body.

"W-What's happening to me? Is this because I'm a Dark Elf now?" Fred thought out loud.

Fred felt her vagina grow warm and damp as she felt the tingling sensation continue to spread.

"I-I'm losing control! Eeek! Fuck!" Fred cried out in fear as she felt the need to rub something against her sensitive clit.

Fred reached down her body and touched her pussy with one hand as she squeezed her breast with the other.

As she rubbed herself with both hands she heard a strange wet sound and looked down to see her hand was covered in clear liquid.

Fred let out an embarrassed gasp as she grabbed the tiny erect clit and began to stroke it.

"Eeek! Crap! I can't believe I'm doing this... But it feels so good!" Fred groaned as she continued to rub herself with one hand while squeezing her breast with the other.

Her purple hair and golden eyes started to glow from the mana inside of her.

"Mmmmm... Eeep! Ooohhh!" Fred moaned loudly as she finally climaxed.

Fred let out a loud cry as her orgasm rocked her body and sent a wave of pleasure coursing through her.

'ITS LIKE IM FIGHTING THE WAVES OF THE OCEAN!' Fred thought to herself as she lay there panting.

Fred felt the warmth between her legs grow even more intense as she closed her eyes and enjoyed every minute of the feeling.

Fred slowly opened her eyes and arched her back while kneeling in the dirt of the farm field.

Fred started to moan aloud as she felt her inner walls begin to twitch around the object that was making them quiver.

Fred let out a muffled cry as she orgasmed again and brought her legs together tightly around her hand.

"AUNG! MMMM! AAOORGGH!" Fred cried out as another orgasm overtook her body.

Fred was moaning and crying out in pleasure until she finally came down from her high and felt the cooling sensation take her very being.

'THIS IS MADNESS!' Fred thought as her eyes rolled back in her head and she passed out right there in the dirt.

As she lay there in the field the glowing mana started to subside and fade beneath the overcast sky.

Fred started to stir in her sleep feeling a little bit of a headache.

'Ugh... Was that all a nightmare?' Fred thought when she felt the soft bed.

She was thinking that she was back in her room at the Blue Owl Inn.

'Gods... Sleeping in my wet clothes was the biggest mistake ever. My body feels like mush,' Fred thought as she lay there enjoying the soft mattress.

It was when she tried to turn on her side that she realized her arms and legs were in restraints.

Fred immediately woke up and noticed that she was in a different room than she remembered and had never seen this one before. She felt the metal bindings around her wrists and ankles.

"Nngh!?" Fred grunted in surprise.

'No! I thought it was a dream! Gods! Why did I turn into a female? This is just sick!' Fred thought to herself as she tried to move her arms.

Fred could feel the cold metal digging into her skin and causing pain as she tried to remove them.

"Augh! AAAUGH!" Fred screamed in frustration as the metal bonds wouldn't break.

Fred sat up quickly and looked around for anything that might help.

When she saw no one in sight she panicked and struggled to get out of the binds.

"Dammit! What type of metal are these things made of!? They're not even bending under my strength! Wait? Did I get weaker?" Fred said to herself as she strained against the restraints.

After minutes of struggling to break her bindings.

Fred got tired and fell back onto the bed. 'Maybe if I rest...' Fred thought as she felt the exhaustion set in.

Just then she heard a noise coming from the door to her room which was filled with many different ingredients and a cauldron next to the fireplace.

The door handle jiggled as someone was trying to open it.

'Oh shit... Someone's here...' Fred thought as she struggled one last time to free herself from her bonds.

Fred heard the wooden door creak open and saw a flash of light enter the room.

Her eyes were struggling to adjust and focus on the figure that entered.

Fred looked up at the person and gasped in terror as she recognized the figure.

"Selena?! You!" Fred yelled in shock when Selena stood above her and smiled.

Selena wore a red dress with silver trimming that went all the way down to her feet.

Her black hair was tied behind her back and she had large hoop earrings in both ears. And her red eyes were full of confidence and power.

Fred was shocked as she knew that Selena was the one responsible for infecting her and transforming her into a Dark Elf.

"So, sleeping beauty is finally awake," Selena said with a smirk.

Fred's mind was running in circles while struggling to believe what her eyes were telling her.

"What are you?! Why have you done this?! You monster!" Fred yelled out as tears began to form in the corners of her eyes.

Selena sighed as she walked closer to Fred and pressed her finger to the side of Fred's face.

"Well, let's just say that I'm similar to you Freddy. You take quests and so do I." Selena said with a smirk.

"Cut it with the cryptic crap! Are you even human?! Are you even real!? You're not some kind of illusion!" Fred yelled out.

Selena sighed again and looked down at Fred. "Yes, I'm human. But human society doesn't think I am."

Fred was baffled at first but then it hit her.

'She's a witch!!! A real live one! No! No! Nooo! This isn't good! Why is there a witch here, in Hooten? Changing people into Dark Elves!? Is this a trap!? What can I do? Do I tell the guards? Will they believe me?' Fred thought in panic.

"Oh? I know that look... So, you know what I am, right?" Selena asked as she examined Fred's expression.

"I-I..." Fred stuttered. "Please, Lady Selena. Please turn me back into my old self... I-I'll do anything... Please! Anything!" Fred cried out.

Selena smiled warmly at Fred and shook her head.

"Sorry, Freddy. But I was hired by the Demon War Lord of the Gorgon Mountains to make sure the Dark Elves will live again. And you were my first successful 100% full-breed Dark Elf. I'm not going to turn you back. Plus, I don't have the knowledge to turn you back even if I could."

Fred looked up at Selena and saw how happy her eyes were.

"But why!? Why would they hire a witch like you!?" Fred asked as she tried to understand why Selena would be doing this.

"He didn't say and I didn't ask. I was just told I get some rare materials for my witch's brew if I brought back the Dark Elves. The funny thing is I didn't know they were extinct." Selena said as she shrugged her shoulders.

"So you are trying to resurrect the Dark Elves by changing humans into them!? Why did you choose your own kind to turn into Dark Elves!?" Fred demanded.

"Well, that's the neat thing about humans. We are like sponges when it comes to mana manipulation." Selena explained.

Fred was confused by her statement.

"What are you talking about?! Don't play dumb with me!" Fred exclaimed in anger.

Selena chuckled as she stopped and looked at Fred.

"You were an adventurer, right? Tell me, what happens if you were bitten by a zombie? You become a zombie too, right?" Selena asked.

"That's... Yeah? That's what happens." Fred said as she was confused.

"Hmmm... But why is it only humans that are zombies but not animals?" Selena asked.

"Because...? I-I don't know! Because we're human!" Fred replied.

"Really? How many elf zombies have you come across or seen? None right?" Selena said as she smiled.

Fred was confused by the conversation as she had never really thought about why humans could turn into zombies and no other race could. They would get bitten and be fine.

"It's because zombies are full of negative energy and when it enters the body of a human it manifests and quickly corrupts them turning their lifeforce into negative mana. The more negative energy there is inside a human, the faster the corruption. Zombies are created from negative mana." Selena explained.

Fred never knew that's why zombies existed. She just thought that's how the world was.

"It's the same if you get bitten by a werewolf or a vampire or drink the blood of a demon. Negative energy is the easiest way to turn a human into a monster. It's just a natural result of humans manifesting too much negative energy and turning into a different race." Selena continued.

"Wait... So are you saying that purple root infected me with negative energy?" Fred asked.

"No, to turn a human into a Dark Elf requires a little more trial and error. They aren't beings of negative energy but they are beings of nature and cosmic chaos. So it is not as easy to turn a human into a Dark Elf. Plus, it takes the right person to be accepted by these forces." Selena said as she smiled.

"So, you are saying that I am destined for being a Dark Elf? That's insane! You may be right about negative energy but changing a human into a different race is impossible! Not even the gods can do that!" Fred protested.

"Ha! But the Gods do, Freddy," Selena taunted.

Fred was angry with Selena's words and couldn't believe she said such heresy.

"Hmm? You don't believe me? Tell me what happens to the saints of the church when they receive their Gods' divinity?" Selena asked.

Fred paused as she realized what Selena was saying.

"You are saying a saint changes their race when they absorb too much divinity?" Fred asked in disbelief.

"Correct," Selena said as she nodded her head.

Fred was shocked that Selena told her a truth about the world, that she somehow ignored all her life.

"How is that possible!?" Fred asked as she became curious about her logic.

"The followers of the Holy Light. Their saints turn into-"

"Beings of light..." Said Fred as she finished Selena's sentence.

She smiled at Fred as the reality of how the world worked was finally sinking into her mind.

"And the followers of the Divine Unity. Their saints turn into-"

Fred was starting to get scared as she realized how right the witch was.

"Their saint turned into an angel," Fred whispered.

Selena smiled as she saw Fred's reaction.

"Now you're getting it! And so I was trying to use a similar method that the Gods used to turn their followers into another race. But using a similar speed to negative energy to turn one into a different race. Because that's the issue with divinity. It takes centuries before the human body transforms. And I don't want to wait that long to see if my plan will work out. So I decided to try something else." Selena said with a smile.

Fred looked at Selena and couldn't believe what she had said.

"A-Are you saying that purple root was your creation? That I'm becoming a Dark Elf because of it?" Fred asked in disbelief.

"Yep! I need to come up with a name for my cute viney purple plant! It was like I had a stroke of genius when it was all said and done. By corrupting a plant with cosmic chaos, it filtered in the forces of nature. Then it was able to safely inject the essence of the plant into a human's body. All while giving them the ability to turn into a creature of nature." Selena said with pride.

"But what about the negative effects?" Fred asked as she looked down at herself.

"Well, it's a good thing you were the first to become a full breed. So you have no side effects from the chaotic energy. And don't worry about the physical changes. You'll get used to them and then they won't even bother you anymore." Selena said with a smile.

"NO SIDE EFFECTS?! I TURNED INTO A WOMAN! MY PENIS IS GONE! HOW IS THAT NOT A SIDE EFFECT!?" Fred shouted angrily.

His voice echoed through the room.

"Honey, calm down. You have something better than a penis, if you ask me!" Selena said as she stood beside Fred. "Also, there's nothing wrong with being a Dark Elf either. If you read the history books you'll see that there are many famous adventurers that were Dark Elves."

Fred looked down at her new body and felt how different it has become. A small part of her wanted to resist the transformation.

"Why me? Why did this happen to me!?" Fred asked as she looked up at Selena. She was scared and confused about what was happening to her.

"Well, I wasn't expecting you to change genders. But maybe you were meant to be a woman and this corrected that mistake." Selena said.

Fred frowned and shook her head. She didn't want to be a woman.

"I am a male, not a female! Stop calling me honey or sweetie! I'm Fred!" he shouted angrily.

Selena raised her hand to Fred's tits and pinched her dark nipple.

"AUNGH! WHAT ARE YOU DO-OOHHH! AUNH!" Fred moaned as she winced from pleasure.

She threw her hands over her mouth in embarrassment. Her heart was pounding in her chest as Selena teased her.

"Stop that! Stop touching my boobs! AUNH!" Fred demanded.

"Sorry sweetie, you have nipples now. And you seem to enjoy it," Selena said with a grin.

Fred bit her bottom lip as she tried to stop herself from moaning.

"They feel nice, don't they?" Selena asked as she squeezed Fred's breasts.

"UH, YEAH!" Fred replied as she clenched her teeth together in frustration.

"You really need to stop that!" Selena said as she took away her hand. "Just accept it. I mean, look at yourself! Do you honestly think anyone will call you a guy when they see your boobs and vagina?"

Fred glared at her. She found it strange that she was no longer attracted to Selena.

"How can you say that with a straight face!? It's your fault I'm this way!" Fred said.

"Oh come on honey... You know what? I think someone needs to get laid! And lucky for you another villager became a full breed. I was just bringing him into my lair when you woke up." Selena said as she smiled wickedly.

Fred's expression changed from anger to concern.

"What do you mean? How long have I been sleeping?" Fred asked with a hint of panic in her voice.

"Almost two days now. I was worried that you wouldn't wake up. But luckily you did." Selena said as she walked over to Fred and lifted her chin so they were looking eye to eye. "Don't worry! The partner that I have for you is a looker. He'll make a great boyfriend."

Fred blushed while her heart raced. She couldn't believe that she was going to be intimate with another man. It disgusted and excited her at the same time.

'No! I'm a man at heart! I'll never let myself become like this! I'm Fred! I'm not some slutty dark elf! I'm a Lone Wolf! I'm strong and I always finish my quests!'

Fred scowled at her body as she felt the excitement building inside her.

"Why don't we go meet up with him right now so you can get to know each other better? I think it's time that you met your future lover!" Selena said as she walked out of the room.

Fred could hear the noises of wheels moving on wood outside, followed by heavy footsteps.

It took a moment for Selena to return with a male Dark Elf sleeping on a stretcher and he was chained to it.

He looked like he was over 6 feet tall. Had a ripped body and chiseled muscles. He had white hair and a handsome face.

Fred wished she had a body like his back when she was a man, but her eyes couldn't help but gravitate towards what was in between his legs.

She blushed as she saw his huge cock hanging between his legs.

"He looks like a nice guy!" Selena said in a teasing tone.

Fred's heart pounded in her chest as she stared at his giant dick.

'What's wrong with me?! I'm not gay! This isn't me! I need to fight this!'

"Let's get started then. This nice hunk of man is Major Krenner of the village guard. And he was a royal knight," Selena said as she used her magic to move the stretcher closer to Fred.

Fred's eyes bulged as she saw a naked man laying on the stretcher. His muscular body glistened from sweat and dust. His straight white hair covered his face as he was unconscious. And her pussy itches when her eyes looked at his massive cock that wasn't erect yet.

"Is he okay?" Fred asked in a panicked voice.

Selena laughed.

"Of course he's okay! He's just passed out because of the cosmetic chaos fusing inside his body!" Selena said as she giggled.

Fred turned her head away embarrassed.

"He isn't developing a mana vein like yours so he should be easier to wake up," Selena said as she continued laughing.

"I-It's not funny! I... I've been tested by the mages and I wasn't born with a mana vein or anything!" Fred said as she clenched her fists tightly.

Selena stopped laughing as she looked at Fred.

"Are you sure about that? I mean, you have a massive mana vein with the power of chaos. You are almost as powerful as me, Freddy!" Selena said.

Fred looked down.

"That's impossible! That doesn't make sense! I-I....." Fred got distracted when Selena started rubbing Krenner's limp dick and it started to grow hard.

Selena smiled as she leaned close to him.

"You can't take your eyes off this, can you," Selena said before licking Krenner's dick.

Fred watched in shock as Krenner's cock began to rise faster and faster until it was fully erect.

"Damn! He has a big dick!" Selena said in a hushed tone as she ran her hands around the base of his dick.

Fred's pussy was itching to be touched.

'Ugh! This isn't happening! Stop it! I'm a Lone Wolf! I'm not like this!'

"Hey!" Selena said as she grabbed Fred's arm, "I bet you know how men like to be touched, don't you?"

Fred blushed as she felt the bindings around her arm coming undone.

'Why am I letting her guide my hand to some dude's cock?! This isn't me! I'm not a slut!' she thought as her fingers came in contact with Krenner's erect shaft.

Fred rubbed Krenner's cock softly while Selena licked the tip and sucked on it.

Her tongue traced his cock and then she wrapped her lips around it and bobbed her head up and down.

Fred wanted to look away so badly, but she was mesmerized by the way Selena's red lips moved along the length of Krenner's shaft. She would run her tongue all over his sensitive underside and suck on his balls.

Krenner moaned as he felt Selena's warm mouth sucking him off.

'By the Gods! His cock is so warm and soft!' Fred thought as she unconsciously licked her own lips.

Selena pulled off Krenner's dick and she let it fall.

"Now your turn Freddy," Selena said, "Show us what a real woman can do."

The rest of Fred's bindings came undone freeing her from the bed.

She stood up while her right hand was still holding Krenner's cock.

A part of her knew this was her chance to escape. And warn everyone that a witch was in the town of Hooten. But her pussy was tingling for attention as she looked down at the large erection.

"Well? Is there something wrong?" Selena asked as she stood next to Fred.

Fred looked back at Selena.

"I-I'm not gay?" Fred said nervously.

Selena chuckled while she grabbed both sides of Fred's head and guided her towards Krenner's erect cock.

"Oh, I think we'll find out if you're a real woman or not," Selena said as she pushed Fred's lips closer to the tip of Krenner's dick.

'Aunh!?' That muskie scent is so hot!' Fred thought as she took her first lick.

Fred closed her eyes as she tasted Krenner's cock.

His musky smell filled her nose as she slid her tongue across the thick shaft.

'Oh, Gods! He tastes so good!' Fred thought as she opened her eyes.

She saw Selena watching her and Fred blushed as she continued to lick Krenner's cock.

"Not bad! But you can do better, Freddy. How far down do you think you can swallow his dick? I bet you can't go past two inches," Selena moaned as she watched Fred clean Krenner's cock with her tongue.

'She thinks she can trick me!? I can say no whenever I want! But I'll show her what the Lone Wolf can do! She won't make a mockery of me! I can totally take more than two inches! I can take him in one go!' thought Fred as she moved her mouth to the tip of his cock.

She blushed as she tried to deepthroat Krenner's huge dick.

'My god! It feels so long down my throat!' Fred thought as she felt the swollen tip of Krenner's cock touch the back of her throat.

She gagged and coughed as she pulled away before she could lose her lunch.

"Hahaha! You did it, Freddy!" Selena said, "I guess you are a real woman after all."

Fred blushed as she wiped the spit off of her cheeks and chin.

"Here," Selena said, "Let me help you out, kid."

Selena held Fred's head as she guided her towards Krenner's cock again.

'Wait!? I-I don't need to do this again! AUNGH! Oh, Gods! This doesn't feel like me!' Fred thought as she tried to pull her head away.

But Selena held her head firmly and kept her mouth locked onto Krenner's cock.

"You will always do what I tell you to do. Now relax your throat. That's a good girl." Selena moaned as she had Fred suck Krenner off.

The sweet taste of Krenner's precum filled her mouth as she sucked him off.

'Oh, Gods! Why does his cock feel so good? AUNGH! It's going past my throat!' Fred thought as she felt Krenner's cock sliding down her throat.

"Are you ready for the big finish? I mean...you have to be a real woman now right?" Selena said as she moved Fred's head up and down Krenner's cock.

Fred nodded with Krenner's cock deep inside her throat, "Mmmh!"

"Good girl!" Selena moaned as she slowly lifted her head.

'I can breathe! I can breathe!' Fred thought as she was no longer deepthroating him but kept her mouth locked onto the tip of his cock.

Her mind went blank as she felt Krenner's cock hitting the back of her throat when Selena pushed her head down again.

Selena smiled as she let go of Fred's head, "Now, keep going. Claim your man's seed with your mouth,"

Fred bobbed her head up and down Krenner's cock.

"Hehe, you seem to love sucking cock. And you're quite good at it too," Selena said as she watched Fred suck Krenner off.

'She's mocking me! Well, I don't care! I'll finish this and never suck another man's cock ever again! AUNH! IT TWITCHED! OH GOD! IT'S SO BIG IN MY MOUTH!' Fred thought as she felt Krenner's cock twitch and jerk inside her mouth.

"Oh? Looks like he's going to cum? Don't let his cum spill out." Selena teased as she looked at Fred bobbing her head up and down Krenner's cock.

'Augh! Please don't let him cum! It sounds so gross!' Fred thought as she started sucking Krenner off faster.

Krenner groaned as he felt Fred's mouth moving against his shaft.

"He's getting close, dear. But remember not to let his load spill out. Otherwise, it would be a waste," Selena whispered as she looked at Fred.

'AUNGH! I'M NOT GAY! I DO NOT WANT TO BE A FEMALE DARK ELF! THIS IS WRONG! WHY DOES IT FEEL SO GOOD!? AUGH! I'm gonna die!' Fred thought as she continued sucking Krenner off as his cock veins began to throb and spasm.

"O-Oooooohhh!" moaned Krenner as he blow a huge load of cum into Fred's throat.

'NAUGH!? IT TASTES SO GOOD! I DON'T CARE THAT IM SUCKING OFF KRENNER! AUNH! I NEVER KNEW HOW FUN THIS WAS!'

Fred's mouth and throat were starting to tingle from Krenner's thick cum as it filled her mouth. She swallowed the first two spurts and held Krenner's cock in her mouth while she waited for the rest of Krenner's load to fill her stomach.

When all of Krenner's cum had been pumped into Fred's mouth she closed her mouth and opened her eyes.

"Mmhmm, that's it," Selena said as she ran her hand through Fred's long hair.

"Swallow it." She whispered to Fred as she smiled at her.

Fred nodded as she began to swallow Krenner's cum.

"That's a good girl. You're doing great." Selena whispered as she smiled at Fred.

"Ugh? Huh? Where am I?!" yelled Krenner as he finally woke up.

Fred gasped as she realized what she just had done.

"Oh? Major Krenner? You're finally awake?" Selena said as she up and walked towards him.

Fred gulped as she saw Selena's smile.

"Lady Selena? What's going on? Why am I bound to this bed? Did I get hurt? Augh! It feels so weird!" Krenner said as he tried to move his arms and legs.

"Krenner! S-She's a witch! She's the one that caused everyone to turn into Dark Elves!" Yelled Fred as she stood up.

Selena laughed as she leaned over Krenner, "Do not worry, Major. You're fine. But... you are a Dark Elf now."

"No! Free me this instant!" Krenner shouted as he struggled against his bonds.

"I can't do that. Not until I've gotten you to fall in love with your new girlfriend," Selena said as she kissed Krenner on the cheek.

"I'll never fall for the likes of you!" Krenner shouted as he struggled against his bonds.

"You don't need to worry about that Krenner. I wasn't talking about me." Selena teased as she walked backwards toward Fred who hasn't moved from where she knelt before.

Fred gulped as she saw Selena moving in behind her and pulled her up to make her stand in front of Krenner.

'What should I do?' She thought as she looked back at Selena smiling at her.

Krenner was following where Selena was walking until his eyes saw Fred standing there naked.

"Huh?" Said Krenner as his glare softened into surprise when his eyes looked upon the gorgeous dark elf.

Fred turns her sight back to Krenner. Only to be hypnotized by his purple eyes which were staring at her body.

"Yes, Major. She is a beautiful girl. You will have to treat her well if you want to take her as your wife," Selena said as she lifted up Fred's chin and tilted her head in his direction.

Krenner gulped as his eyes took in Fred's beauty.

'I-I can't move! Aunh! He's staring at me!' Fred thought as she blushed.

"I'm sorry. I didn't mean to stare." Krenner said as he lowered his gaze from Fred.

Fred blushed more as she felt Selena's hands rubbing down to her front and her breasts.

"N-No need to be sorry. I'm sure you have seen some beautiful women before," Fred said as she watched Krenner's gaze go down to her chest.

"I-I mustn't let my impulses get the better of me," Krenner said as he turned away from Fred and gazed at the wall. But his flaccid dick started getting hard again.

'He's getting turned on by me? Aunh! But he's a man. I-I shouldn't be attracted to men!' Fred thought as she blushed when looking at Krenner and his manly body.

"Krenner? Here's another thing that might interest you about her?" Selena said as she let go of Fred's chin and grabbed her right hand and held the Dark elf's palm up, facing the ceiling.

Krenner tried not to look. But his curiosity got the better of him as he peered over to Selena hiding behind Fred while holding her hand up.

"A-Are you trying to hypnotize me?" Krenner asked as his eyes became wide.

"It's not hypnosis or anything like that. I just wanted to show you this." Selena said as her red eyes started to glow causing Fred's golden eyes to glow as well.

'Huh!? I-I can feel a cooling sensation coming from my core! Ooh! Wait! My veins are glowing in my right hand!' Fred thought as she looked at her right hand.

Within a few seconds, a small purple spark came from her palm and started to float in the air.

Fred gasped as she saw her veins start to glow red. Her heart started beating faster and her breaths came out in short gasps.

Spark! Flash! Burn!

The spark turned into a purple fireball that was three times the size of Fred's head.

'BY THE GODS! I CAN CAST MAGIC!? What in the hells is happening to me? Is this what happens when you become a Dark Elf?' Fred thought as she watched her mana flow grow stronger in her hand.

Selena smiled as her eyes stopped glowing which made Fred's fireball start to fade.

"That was a very impressive fireball. It's far beyond the level of a beginner." Selena said as she let go of Fred's arm.

"I-I can cast magic!?" Fred exclaimed as she looked at Selena with wide eyes.

Selena smiled and grabbed the Dark Elf's chin and force it forward to Krenner who was staring at Fred with desire and lust.

"You see, Major... Not only is she beautiful but she's a mage that has one of the world's largest mana veins... And she's untrained..." Selena said as she looked over at Fred.

Krenner kept staring at Fred. Not saying a word. But his massive cock grew to fully erect as he was bound to the stretcher.

'W-Why is he full mast!? I-Is this normal for him? Ah! I-I feel so embarrassed!' Fred thought as she tried to hide her embarrassment.

"What are you thinking? Would you like to make her your wife?" Selena asked as she noticed Krenner's arousal.

"Y-Yes! I would love to have her as my bride!" Krenner said as his face flushed red. He hated to admit that this woman was everything that he wanted. When he was a knight he swore an oath to celibacy. He was no longer a knight to keep the oath but he thought his time had passed to get married and start a family.

"Good. Then we'll help you." Selena said with a smile.

'W-What!? W-Wait!' Fred thought as she covered her chest with both hands.

"Ah? Is someone being shy? Come now? I won't unbind him... yet?" Selena said as she guided Fred closer to Krenner and his erect cock.

'Oh, Gods! She wants me to give him head again! Okay! I did it once I can do it again!' Fred thought as she took a deep breath.

She slowly lowered herself down towards his cock but felt Selena grabbing her hair and pulling her away from Krenner's manhood.

"He wants you as his bride... So, you need to use your other lips, sweetie," Selena said as she pulled Fred's hair which caused her to moan.

"O-Okay... Ahem! S-Sorry...!" Fred said as she was held there by Selena.

"Use those beautiful pussy lips of yours and claim your man's cock." Selena said as she let go of Fred.

'Naugh! She wants me to ride Krenner's dick!? No way! I-I'm not a girl!' Fred thought as she looked at Selena with fear.

"Hahaha! You're too modest for your own good. Get up there and slide it inside you. I guarantee you will enjoy it, honey." Selena said as she grabbed Fred's leg.

"Oh! I-I'm sorry!" Fred said as she got up onto the stretcher. She slowly crawled into position.

"Absolutely, beautiful..." Whispered Krenner as he watched Fred's face coming closer to his.

'Huh! Did he call me beautiful? Aunh! M-My heart!? It's beating so fast! Aunh!? Krenner's face is so attractive! And his voice sounds so sexy!' Fred thought as she gripped the stretcher tightly while looking into his eyes

They were lost in each other's gaze like lovers for seconds and it would have lasted minutes if Selena didn't come in and pushed Fred's hips onto Krenner's cock.

"OOH!" moaned Krenner.

"AUNH!?" Squealed Fred.

'It's sliding inside me! Ooh! N-No! It feels so good! Oh! God! I want more! More!' Fred thought as she started shaking her hips side to side riding Krenner's cock.

"Mm!" Krenner moaned as he watched Fred's body move on his shaft.

"Ooh! You're so big! What is this sensation!? I-I-I-I don't know what's happening! This is amazing!" Fred said as she continued to ride Krenner's shaft.

"God! Y-You're so gorgeous! I want to grab ahold of you! But I can't! Let me touch your breasts...!" Krenner said as he struggled with his bindings.

"Hahaha! That's so cute! Just lay back and enjoy yourself. I'll do all the work, Major!" Fred said as she rode Krenner's cock faster.

"U-Uh! Ah! AHHHHH! AHHH!" Krenner screamed as he felt her insides clamping around his cock.

"Aaah! Ugh! Ahhh! AHH!" Fred moaned as she rode Krenner's manhood harder. She couldn't believe how good it felt.

'Aungh! His cock is hitting my womb! AUNGH! I think it's my WOMB! OOOHHH! I DON'T KNOW ANYMORE! THIS FEELS AMAZING!' Fred thought as she rode Krenner's cock faster than before.

Krenner's heart was racing. He had never experienced pleasure like this. The feeling of her insides clenching around his cock was simply incredible.

"She's amazing isn't she?" Selena asked Krenner as she watched Fred continue to ride Krenner's cock.

"Yeah! She is!" Whispered Krenner as he watched Fred riding him. Her eyes were closed as she was lost in the pleasure of Krenner's manhood.

Selena smiled as her eyes glowed.

And before Krenner knew it his arms and legs were freed from his bindings.

"Aunh! Aunh! Aunh! AUNGH!? MAJOR!? MMMMMMMMMHHH!?" Fred yelled as Krenner grabbed her head and pulled her into a deep passionate kiss.

"Yes! That's it! Kiss me!" Krenner moaned as he pushed his tongue inside Fred's mouth.

"Mm! Ah! Ah! Ah! Uuuhn!" Fred moaned as she kissed Krenner back passionately.

'Naugh!? I got to push his tongue back! AUGH!? COME ON! I WON'T LOSE TO- AUNGH! HE TASTES SO GOOD! I CAN BARELY BREATHE!' Fred thought as she struggled to keep their lips locked.

The two of them broke away after a couple of minutes. Both panting heavily.

"You're mine now," Krenner whispered as he watched Fred's chest rise and fall.

"Y-Yeah..." Fred nodded as looked into those dominating eyes.

They both lay on the ground kissing each other again as Fred straddled Krenner's waist as she moved up and down on his cock like an expert rider. Krenner moaned as he felt her pussy squeezing his manhood.

"Ah! Ah! Umm... I'm going to cum soon," Fred said as she slowed down her thrusts.

Krenner grabbed her hips and started moving her up and down faster.

'NNNOOO! HE'S GOING TOO FAST! AUNGH! I'M GONNA CUM!!!' Fred thought as she arched her back.

"AHHH!" Fred squealed as she came close to orgasm.

"Don't hold back! Cum for me, my Lady! And I'll give you my seed!" Krenner moaned as he watched Fred's body shake.

"AHHH! YES! URGH! AUNGHH!" Fred cried out as she came closer and closer to climaxing.

Krenner was thrusting faster now. He could feel his own orgasm approaching fast.

"AH! AH! UH! AHH! AH! AH! AH! AH! AH! AH! AH! AH! AH! AUNG! AGAAAGHHHH!" She screamed out as she came on Krenner's massive cock. Her eyes rolled up into the back of her head and she fell onto his chest with a loud thud.

Krenner changed positions so he was on top now and continued to pump in and out of Fred's pussy. His hands held her waist tightly as they fucked passionately.

'Naugh!? He's dominating me! NAUGH! There's nothing I can do and I love it!' Fred thought as she felt the pleasure coursing through her body.

"Aaahn! Aahh! Yes! AH! AHH! Give it to me! AH! AH! Fill me up with your seed! AHH! AH! AH! AHHHH!" Fred gasped as she clenched her muscles around Krenner's cock.

"I'm going to cum! Oh God! Take my seed, my Lady!" Krenner moaned.

"Cum for me! AUNGGHH! I'M CUMMING! NNNNGGGGGGGGHHHHH!" Fred screamed as she came around Krenner's cock.

He released all of his seed deep inside her womb. She held him tight as she felt the hot sticky liquid fill her up.

Her vision went black and white as she orgasmed.

Fred didn't even realize when she passed out.

"Ohh! Ohh! God... I finally have a partner to call my own... What's her name?" Krenner asked out loud hoping to get a response from Selena.

"..."

"Selena?" Krenner asked again as he looked around the room but Selena wasn't in sight.

"Huh? Where did she go? Whoa!" Krenner was about to get off the stretcher when Fred subconsciously hugged him with both her arms and legs, refusing to let him go.

Krenner stared at Fred in surprise.

"Haha... So, you don't want your man leaving your side, aye? I don't blame you," Krenner said with a smile and kissed her forehead.

Fred blushed and giggled softly in her sleep.

Fred was having the best dream she has ever had in her life. She woke up gasping for air and then gasped as she saw the person sleeping next to her.

She slowly opened her eyes and looked at the person sleeping right next to her.

"Krenner?" Fred whispered in amazement.

Fred was still half asleep and she gently touched his cheek. It felt warm and soft.

"Hi there, sleepyhead," Krenner said with a grin.

"So it was real then? We did the thing?" Fred asked as she sat up.

Krenner nodded his head as he sat up too. "It was real, my Lady."

"This feels weird though... I guess that witch got what she wanted?" Fred looked at herself in confusion.

"Yeah, Selena is nowhere to be seen since our love session. By the way, I don't recognize you after your transformation. Are you one of the townsfolk? Are you Abigail? Or maybe Amelia?" Krenner asked.

Fred blushed and covered her face with her hands. "I am so embarrassed! Y-You are not going to believe me when I tell you who I am!"

"Well, if you don't mind, you can tell me," Krenner said sweetly.

"Um... I'm Fred Wilhelmina! The adventurer that was hired to find the cause of the Dark Elf outbreak?" Fred said as she closed her eyes waiting for the disbelief.

Krenner's brow raised in amusement as he chuckled. "I knew you had a thing for me."

Fred blushed bright red. "Huh? W-What are you talking about?"

"Back in the barracks. You were given me lustful eyes. And it creeped me out. Because I'm not into men! And yet here I am, falling for you. Must be some strange fate that brought us together," Krenner explained with a laugh.

Fred snorted. "That wasn't me being horny or anything like that! That was my curse turning me into a Dark Elf!"

Krenner moved closer to Fred's face.

"I think it's a blessing in disguise," Krenner whispered before kissing Fred on the lips.

Fred suddenly felt hot inside as she kissed him back.

They broke apart and smiled at each other. Fred blushed while Krenner was grinning from ear to ear.

"But I will say, Fred doesn't suit you anymore. I think your name should be Mina now," Krenner whispered in her ear as he licked her long pointy ears.

Fred shivered and bit her lip in embarrassment.

"Why would you think that?" Fred asked as she shook her head trying to clear her thoughts.

"Because I'm not going to scream out Fred when I cum inside you again," Krenner said with a wink as he reached down and grabbed her breasts.

Fred moaned softly at the touch of his hand on her chest.

"Ahhh...!" Fred gasped as Krenner started to kiss her neck.

'Mina? I-I like it!' Fred thought as she wrapped her arms around Krenner.

Mina groaned in pleasure as Krenner nibbled on her earlobe.

"F-Forgive me... I failed to stop the outbreak... Aunh!" Mina mumbled.

Krenner laughed and squeezed her big tits. "Don't worry. We'll live!"

Mina whimpered as Krenner pinched her nipples.

He placed his hand between her legs and began to massage her pussy.

"Nn..." Mina moaned as Krenner teased her clit.

"Do you enjoy it? Is this how you always imagined it to be?" Krenner whispered in her ear as he continued to rub her inner thighs.

Mina smiled at the question. "I never thought it could feel this good!"

She kissed his neck again.

Krenner growled as he started getting excited. "No more teasing! Time to show you just how much I love you, Mina!"

He lifted her up and placed her on top of the table.

"Aaah! What are you doing? Wait, no! Stop!" Mina cried out as Krenner pushed her back down onto the table.

"It's too late for that now. At least let me eat you first." Krenner replied.

Krenner spread her legs and stared at her pink pussy.

"Fuck! Your so wet already!" Krenner groaned as he licked his lips.

Mina yelped as Krenner touched her virgin slit with the tip of his penis.

"Oww... Crap! AUNH!" Mina screamed as Krenner entered her.

"Shhh! It's okay. Just relax," he told her.

Krenner kept moving his hips slowly as Mina whimpered and moaned every time he entered her.

'It feels so different the second time! This is amazing!' Mina thought as Krenner picked up speed.

He grabbed hold of her big breasts and moved them around as he fucked her hard.

"Yes! Yes! Yes!" Mina screamed out as Krenner hit her G-spot.

She could feel her orgasm building up as Krenner continued fucking her. She couldn't help herself from arching her back and screaming louder.

'Oh, Gods! Aunh! I'm such a slut! It feels so good!'

Mina felt Krenner's cock get even bigger inside of her. She felt the tip throbbing as if it was about to explode.

"Krenner! You're gonna make me cum all over you!" Mina moaned loudly.

"Aah! Hold on tight!" Krenner exclaimed.

Krenner thrust his hips forward as he shoved his cock deep inside Mina.

"Agh! Yesss! Right there!" Mina groaned as Krenner made her cum.

Mina gripped the table tightly as Krenner picked up speed.

"I never thought I get a woman as a quarter good as you, Mina! You're the best thing ever to happen to me!" Krenner groaned as he humped her faster.

"Ah! F-Fuck me! Fuck me! AHHH!" Mina screamed as she came again.

Her whole body convulsed as she held Krenner close. Her legs trembled from the powerful orgasms hitting her.

Mina felt Krenner twitch and his cock got even bigger inside of her.

"SHIT! I'm gonna blow!" Krenner yelled.

Mina could tell he was about to cum and she didn't want him to pull out of her. She wanted to feel him shoot his load inside her.

"GAHHHH! FUCK YES!" Krenner yelled in delight as he unloaded into her.

Mina whimpered as Krenner's cock pulsated and spurted his seed deep inside of her.

"NNGAAAH!" Mina screamed out loud as she climaxed and had an intense orgasm.

She lay exhausted on the table as Krenner remained still inside of her.

"Ha haha... Oh, I wish we could do this all day but we probably should get out of town before we're noticed." Krenner said as he sat up and pulled out of her.

Mina looked at him with lust in her eyes as she put her hand against his cheek.

"Do you think we'll be hunted down for becoming Dark Elves?" Mina asked as she laid back on the table.

"Yeah. We'd better move quickly or else they might come after us," Krenner replied.

Krenner helped Mina off the table.

Mina looked around and noticed the room that had all of Selena's stuff was all gone. But there was a piece of parchment on her empty desk.

"Huh? Selena magically clean her stuff while we were doing it?" Mina muttered quietly as she picked up the parchment.

"Really? What does it say?" Krenner asked.

Mina read the letter carefully.

Hey, you two,

If you are reading this then I accomplished my mission and went to collect my reward.

And just wanted to give you two love birds a heads-up about the rest of the people of Hooten.

Most likely the rest of them have failed to become full-breed Dark Elves. This means their minds will fully succumb to the cosmic chaos and become primal beasts.

It's sad I know. But it was for the greater good.

And just so you know, they can't be saved so kill them if they see you.

Best of luck,

Your favorite witch,

Selena Cursemoon

PS.

I left you some clothes in the wardrobe.

PSS

If you want to use your magic fireball just remember the feeling of channeling your mana through your veins from your core.

After both of them read the letter, Krenner had a worried look on his face.

"Shit! The townsfolk are going mad," Krenner said as he grabbed the parchment and read it again.

"What should we do?" Mina asked.

"The town was my responsibility. I need to put them out of their misery," Krenner replied.

"Okay, I'll help you. Let's get dressed and go," Mina replied.

They both found the wardrobe Selena was talking about and opened it to find a few outfits that were clearly meant for women and one armor set for a man.

"This one looks like something I can wear," Mina said and took the dress and put it on.

"You look amazing in that dress!" Krenner exclaimed as he admired Mina.

Mina blushed happily as she looked at herself in the mirror.

Her dress was made of light blue silk with white lace trimming along the bottom hem and neckline. And it had a plunging v-neck revealing plenty of cleavage. It also flared out slightly above the knees and was short enough that Mina was showing her long legs.

"How do I look?" Mina asked nervously.

"Breathtaking," Krenner said as he stood behind Mina and kissed her neck.

"Hey! Not now! We're in a hurry!" Mina said as she pushed Krenner away from her.

Krenner grabbed the exotic armor and put it on.

Mina was surprised to see Krenner wearing a matching set of armor that fit him perfectly.

"It's like it was made for me," Krenner said in surprise.

His armor was mostly black with silver accents and the breastplate had a small dragon etched into the center.

"I'm impressed you knew how to put this on without asking me," Mina remarked as she inspected the armor.

"You just wanted to touch my body? You don't need permission to touch me, my Lady," Krenner replied.

"That's not what I mean! Especially when we're in a hurry!" Mina retorted.

"I'm just trying to bring levity to our situation," Krenner said as he smiled.

"What's the plan?" Mina asked as she looked around the room.

"Well, I need my sword and that's back at the barracks," Krenner replied.

"Yeah, I need to get my things back at the Inn."

They both got finished dressing in their gear and walked out of the room.

As they reached the front door they paused and listened to hear what might be going on outside

"What happened here?" Krenner wondered aloud.

There was a loud scream followed by more screams and cries of pain.

"Someone is hurting the people?" Mina asked.

"Sounds like it, but Selena wrote that all the townsfolk were turned into failed Dark Elves, right?" Krenner asked.

"She wrote most were failures. So maybe there are a few townsfolk like us? Full breeds?" Mina speculated.

"Well, we'll find out," Krenner suggested and opened the door.

They walked down the street where they saw several people in various states of decay.

"Oh, God! What happened to these poor souls?" Krenner asked.

"I don't know," Mina replied. "But let's keep moving."

The two adventurers continued to walk down the road until they heard another scream of agony.

"Did you hear that?" Mina asked.

"Yes, there's definitely someone being tortured," Krenner answered.

"We need to get weapons and fast," Mina reasoned as they walked quickly toward the town center.

As they entered the square they could see some people looking down at a large circle drawn on the ground covered in blood. They noticed a group of five Dark Elves standing around the circle, each with black skin and a crazed look on their face.

"This isn't good," Krenner stated.

"Look at that," Mina pointed to the end of the circle.

There was a man laying in the middle of the bloodstained circle and his body was covered in wounds. His hands, arms, chest, and legs were all torn up and he had several broken bones protruding.

One of the cursed elves noticed them.

"WWWWWAAARRRRRRRRRRR!!!!" The elf shouted and pointed at them causing all the cursed elves to come out of hiding.

Hundreds of them were looking at Mina and Krenner.

'This is fucking creepy! Why are they so fixated on us?' Mina thought.

"Crap! We're surrounded," Krenner cursed as he looked around for anything he could use as a weapon.

"What do we do," Mina asked.

"We fight!" Krenner yelled.

The Dark Elves charged toward them and their claws flashed open as they prepared to strike.

"YA!"

SWING! SMASH! POW! CRACK!

Krenner was using unarmed combat killing off the first four cursed elves with amazing speed. But he got tackled by five at once and couldn't escape.

"Krenner!" Mina yelled as she tried to help him but the others knocked her down.

"Mina! RUN!" Krenner screamed as he struggled against his attackers.

'No! This can't be happening! NO!' Mina thought as the Dark Elves began ripping off Krenner's armor.

All of a sudden Mina felt her mana vein pulsate as she felt it flow to her hands.

"LET HIM GO YOU FREAKS!" Mina shouted as she unleashed a fireball at the closest cursed Elf.

Boom!

It hit him dead on, and he turned to ash.

The other Dark Elves noticed Mina and charged at her. She used a blast of wind and then released a gust of purple flame to kill them.

Hundreds of screams happened in a matter of seconds as Mina burn half the town down with her chaos flames.

"Are you okay?" Krenner asked as he helped Mina back to her feet.

"I'm fine, thanks to you," Mina replied.

They looked at the damage they caused.

"I never thought this was how Hooten would fall," Krenner said with a sad look on his face.

"Yeah... We should gather our things and leave," Mina agreed.

They collected Krenner's belongings first when they entered the barracks.

"Good! No one took my sword," said Krenner as he when and opened the hidden hatch door that was under his desk.

"Here, take this,"

He held out a sheath dagger for Mina.

"Not a bad idea. Hopefully, my mana pool is as big as Selena says it is. But having a contingency is always welcome." said Mina while grabbing the weapon.

"Alright, I have my rations and potions. I have nothing else of value here. You said you were staying at the Blue Owl?" asked Krenner as he hopped out of the hatch door.

"Yeah, left a bag there with my journal. I like to grab it if I can." Mina said as she followed Kenner to the door.

"Hopefully it didn't catch on fire when to casted your magic,"

"I'm sorry about that,"

"Don't be. We would have died if you didn't act." Krenner said as he turned to Mina and gave her a reassuring smile.

As they walked down the ruined town of Hooten. Mina and Krenner found the Blue Owl Inn was still intact.

"My stuff should be in my room. Let's go," Mina said.

"Okay," Krenner agreed.

The two entered the inn and made their way to Mina's room. When they got there they found the door was locked.

"Hey, can you open your door?" Mina asked Krenner.

"What? You don't want to burn the rest of the city down?... Okay! Okay! It was a bad joke. I got the door," said Krenner while he squared up to the door and kicked it in with his new elven strength smashing it in with ease.

SMASH!

"Thank you," Mina commented as she walked inside.

Mina looked around the room, "Whoa! WHO ARE YOU!? SHOW YOURSELVES!!!"

A woman with long black hair came out from behind the bed with three other Dark Elves. They looked normal like Mina and Krenner.

"Y-You aren't like them? Who are you?" Asked the female Dark Elf with black hair.

"I'm Major Krenner. I was the former guard of the town. Well, what was left of it... What's your name?" Krenner responded.

"The Major is alive!? Thank the Gods! It's me Wisteria!" The dark elf girl exclaimed with joy.

'The owner of the inn survived?... That's good.' Mina thought.

"How did this happen?" Wisteria asked.

"A witch is what happened. Anyway, we cleared the town but we can't stay here anymore. All four of you should come with us, or else the kingdom will hunt you down," Krenner explained.

"But where are we going? I'm sure our friends and family are worried about us," Wisteria said.

"We have no choice. We have to build a new village somewhere else," Mina answered.

Wisteria and the three other elves looked at each other and nodded.

"Okay! All of you follow me!" Krenner ordered.

The group left the inn and headed for the forest.

Where they slowly grew a new Dark Elf society after many years.
