Are you there?

Well Hello! >:)

You texting me first is a fun change. Are you still mad at me?

I will always be mad at you. But, my therapist said I should find a way to move on. It's been a year since you ate my daughter,...

And, well.. I forgive you. Even though I want to murder you, I forgive you. There I said it.

WOW! I did not expect to hear you ask that.

Well, me neither. But I do already feel better.

Well I am simply DELIGHTED you said that! Thank you!

Can I ask you a question?

Absolutely cupcake.

Was Tara,..good?

Don't you go assuming stuff already! I just...want to be proud of my little girl one last time. Was she at least good at what you...used her for? She was good at everything she set her mind to. Was she good as food?

From the bottom of my heart and my balls...she was five star fine as fuck dinning.

You still there?

So she, was a...satisfactory meal then? Did she provide you with an adequate amount of energy and nutrition?

Your daughter was food enough for five days and a memory to last a lifetime. I closed a trade deal worth 5 million credits while Tara's calories were still coursing through my veins.

Her shoes are the new centerpiece in my trophy room! I still bust nuts to the thought of Tara. Here look!

I STILL pay tribute to Tara twice a week, even a year later. She was unbelievable, truly Miss B!

You baked a 10 in your oven Miss B 😈

Well, just so I know. What happened when...was it hard to fully...
Can you describe...describe what happened? Tell me how it...how you...

I'd be more than happy to tell you all about it!!!

Once Tara had signed over her life in the fine print of her contract, I decided to keep up the charade a little longer. I made her assume the position for an oral pipe cleaning, and I would have shoved it down her too! But I was just so hungry, that I decided to just flat out eat her. Just no nonsense getting that fat ass daughter in my belly pronto.

I felt your daughter's big jello vanilla ass pass painfully past the back of my throat, and then she plopped into my belly like so many other unfortunate daughters have.

I started scrolling through her phone while I felt her kicking and wiggling begin to grow weaker.

I started stroking to all her personal and private pictures while I could feel her slowly beginning to die inside my belly.

Around about the time I got to this picture, I felt her twitch suddenly and then she stopped moving. I literally lost my mind in ecstasy and roped for what had to be 2 minutes straight. Tara just about made my entire year.

That's my girl, ooooh that's Mommy's girl
Oh god Mommy's girl!
