A woman with short, curly grey hair is seen from behind, looking into a large mirror on a white vanity. She is wearing a blue, long-sleeved, patterned dress and black high-heeled shoes. The vanity has a white top and a white cabinet with three drawers. On the vanity, there is a pink box, a white tissue box, and a pink vase. To the left of the vanity is a white stool. In the background, there is a blue wall and a window with a white grid pattern. A purple lamp is on the floor to the left of the vanity.
