[Verse 1]

D

I gotta get home, there's a garden to tend

D

All the fruit's on the ground

Em

And the birds have all moved back into my attic, whistling static

Em

D

When the young learn to fly I will patch all the holes up again

D

Well, I can't believe that my lime tree is dead

D

Em

I thought it was sleeping, I guess it got fed up with not being fed

Em

I would be too, I keep food in my belly

Em

D

D

And hope that my time isn't soon (Isn't soon)

[Chorus]

D

Em

So I try to understand what I can't hold in my hand

G

A

D

And whatever I find, I'll find my way back to you

D

And if you could try to find it too

Em

'Cause this place has overgrown into waxing moon

G

A

D

D

Home is wherever we are if there's love here too

[Verse 2]

D

In the back of our house there's a trail that won't end

D

We were walking so far, it grew back in

Em

And now there's no trail at all, only grass growing tall

Em

D

Get out my machete and battle with time once again

Em

D

D

But I'm bound to lose 'cause I'll be damned if time don't win

D

I gotta get home there's a garden to tend

D

All the seeds from the fruit buried and began

Em

Their own family trees, teach them thank you and please

Em

D

Spread their own roots then watch the young fruit grow again

Em

D

This old trail will lead me right back to where it begins

[Chorus]
