

[Chorus]

F#m

Girl, I hope you understand

D

I wanted to hold your hand

A

C#7

But I can't, wanted to be your man back then

F#m

And you knew I fell for you but you

D

Just broke my heart in two

A

I was sad, mad, and broken on my bed

C#7

Hoping I get rid of all the voices in my head

[Verse 1]

F#m

I was opening a packet of an undeveloped med

D

When I was met with a prescription of a bullet made of lead

A

And when I woke up in an hour in a pool of my own sweat

C#7

I said, "I swear to God I'll never even try to sleep again"

F#m

So instead I took my pen and started writing evidence

D

And when I started making sense I found that I had reached the end

A

Oh, I'm upset, I have no friends you wanna bet you're just pretend?

C#7

You're just a pet confined within the lines of writing you're not s

F#m

D

I thought I stopped my psychopathic ways, I swear I did

A

C#7

I said I talked to people 'bout the problematic life I lived

F#m

They were my neighbors, razor blades

D

And different flavored pills I hate

A

Therefore I'm not sure, leave my last straw

C#7

I'm so glad, stuck in the past, I said that

[Chorus]

F#m

Girl, I hope you understand

D

I wanted to hold your hand

A

C#7

But I can't, wanted to be your man back then

F#m

And you knew I fell for you but you

D

Just broke my heart in two

A

I was sad, mad, and broken on my bed

C#7

Hoping I get rid of all the voices in my head

[Verse 2]

F#m

Somebody 'cause it's not me I'm not used to all the talk,

D

it was an introvert that had converted feelings into writing

A

Used to cope with all my problems using notes and lots of rhyming

C#7

Used to hope for better days whenever nights would have me crying

F#m

I'm not lying when I say that I would rather daily go back

D

To the times I would try be the guy the people know

A

I was fighting with the demons hiding far beyond my eyelids

C#7

On an island full of violence in my head that I could pilot

F#m

D

Oh, the sun don't shine, the skies turn gray

A

I felt it coursing through my veins

C#7

I said before I'm not okay But you don't listen anyway

F#m

You know I tried, you turned away

D

You straight up lied right to my face

A

You fucked my life, ruined my day

C#7

But you don't know, so I'll say

[Refrain]

F#m

D

Nothing can fill this silence, no one can love like I did
(You don't know, so I'll say)

C#7

Nobody cares, you lied, it's no fair, you still deny it
(So I'll say)

F#m

D

Nothing can fill this silence, no one can love like I did
(You don't know, so I'll say)

C#7

Nobody cares, you lied, it's no fair, you still deny it
(So I'll say)

[Chorus]

F#m

Girl, I hope you understand

D

I wanted to hold your hand

A

C#7

But I can't, wanted to be your man back then

F#m

And too bad I know I can't wake up

D

Because I lost my weight and you don't give a f

A

About me, this could be a dream, I can't see

C#7

The things that you see, so please, oh

F#m

Girl, I hope you understand

D

I wanted to hold your hand

A

C#

But I can't, wanted to be your man back then

F#m

And you know I'll play along

D

You were my home, I wrote you songs

A

And now you're dead to me effectively

C#7

Removed yourself outside my dreams
