Is it "Boobi-

Yeah it's "Boobies"

This is one of the vlogs I used to do, skip to around 9PM ish, you'll see Crush.

When was this..?

It's quite old. Way back when we were 18-ish.

I didn't realize it back then, but he was talking about you in here.

About me..? Like what??

I don't want to spoil it, but I think you'll understand.

Ultimately, it's not up to me to change how you feel about the way we make money..

That's something you have to work out for yourself.

It's blood money that kept us running, that's true.

But how many big corporations are being built with blood money?

How many companies are exploiting their workers?

How many times has a billionaire made headlines for stealing wages.

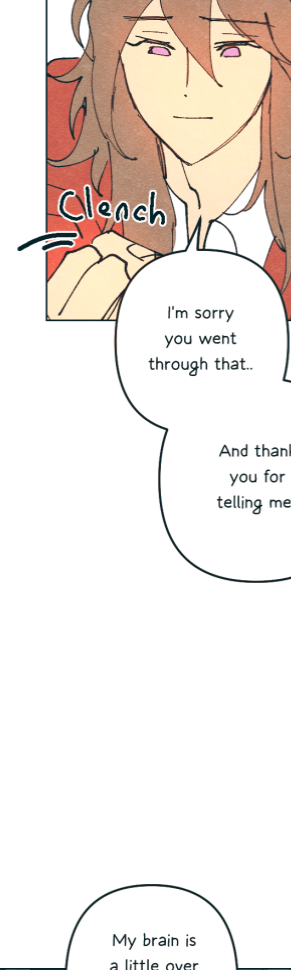

Only to pay a fine that's not even worth 0.0001% of their net worth?

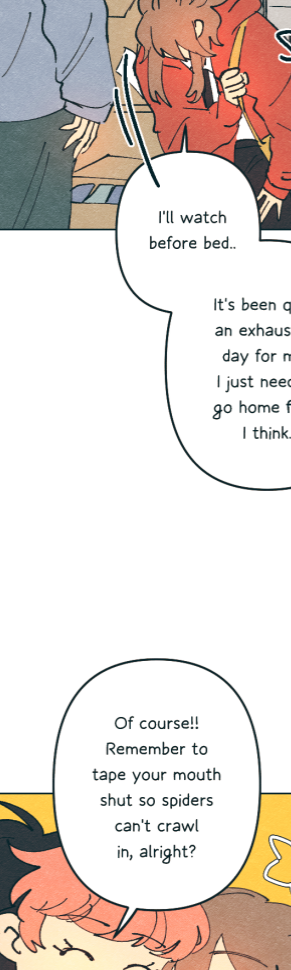

Some couldn't afford to go to school or healthcare

Some even had generational trauma from the monarchy.

They were all born in poverty, living in a world that criminalizes poverty.

I.. was one of them as well.

I lost both of my parents and siblings when I was 4 in a hit and run..

The car that ran away belonged to a billionaire.

He paid good money to the police to cover this up as my parents drunk driving.

I saw the license's plate, I MEMORIZED it.. But..

They were never going to believe me..

They put me in foster care for about a month, then the Syndicate rescued me.

I lived with my mentor until I turned 18, when I officially joined the Syndicate.

I've met so many amazing people working here..

You might feel uncomfortable about the way we work..

But for me.. I'd say a couple of dead billionaires in exchange for the safety and wellbeing of people I love.. That's a no-brainer.

Look, I am not in love with Crush

But he means a lot to me, too.

Wether you accept Crush or not, I want you to draw your own conclusions, Cherie.

I will..

Clench

I'm sorry you went through that..

And thank you for telling me..

My brain is a little over-loaded right now, though..

I'll watch before bed..

It's been quite an exhausting day for me.. I just need to go home first, I think.

Of course!! Remember to tape your mouth shut so spiders can't crawl in, alright?

WHAT?! THERE'S NO WAY THAT'S A THING??

It is!!

THAT'S SO FUCKED??

I KNOW!!
