The two bat sisters who sneaked into my home the other day, it seems that they ran away from their home after a quarrel with their parents

The elder sister, Eli is always grumpy.
I suspect that she quite missed her home.

The younger sister, Ella is a pleasant girl who is much more helpful than Eli around the house.

Ouch!

Ella came almost immediately with the first aid kit.
She might be a bat but I think she is really an angel instead.

She was really gentle with the antiseptic

Ow! That stung!

The pain was finally over, I thought to myself.

Eeeeh?! It's not done yet?!

AAAAAAAAHHH!!!

"Can you scream louder and more painfully?~ Can you?~"
