LEXI – The Smart Home Assistant

A new smart home device hits the market. It's voice-activated and controls your home for you. Tell Lexi to turn on the TV or play some music - No need for manual labor!

Our guy Mika totally loves new tech gadgets and orders a LEXI. Little does he know what wonders await him once LEXI is installed.

Featuring

Mikael...	a guy on holiday at the beach resort
Jessica...	Mikael's stepsister
Jeniffer...	Mikael's stepmother
Prof. Harrison	Mikael's Father

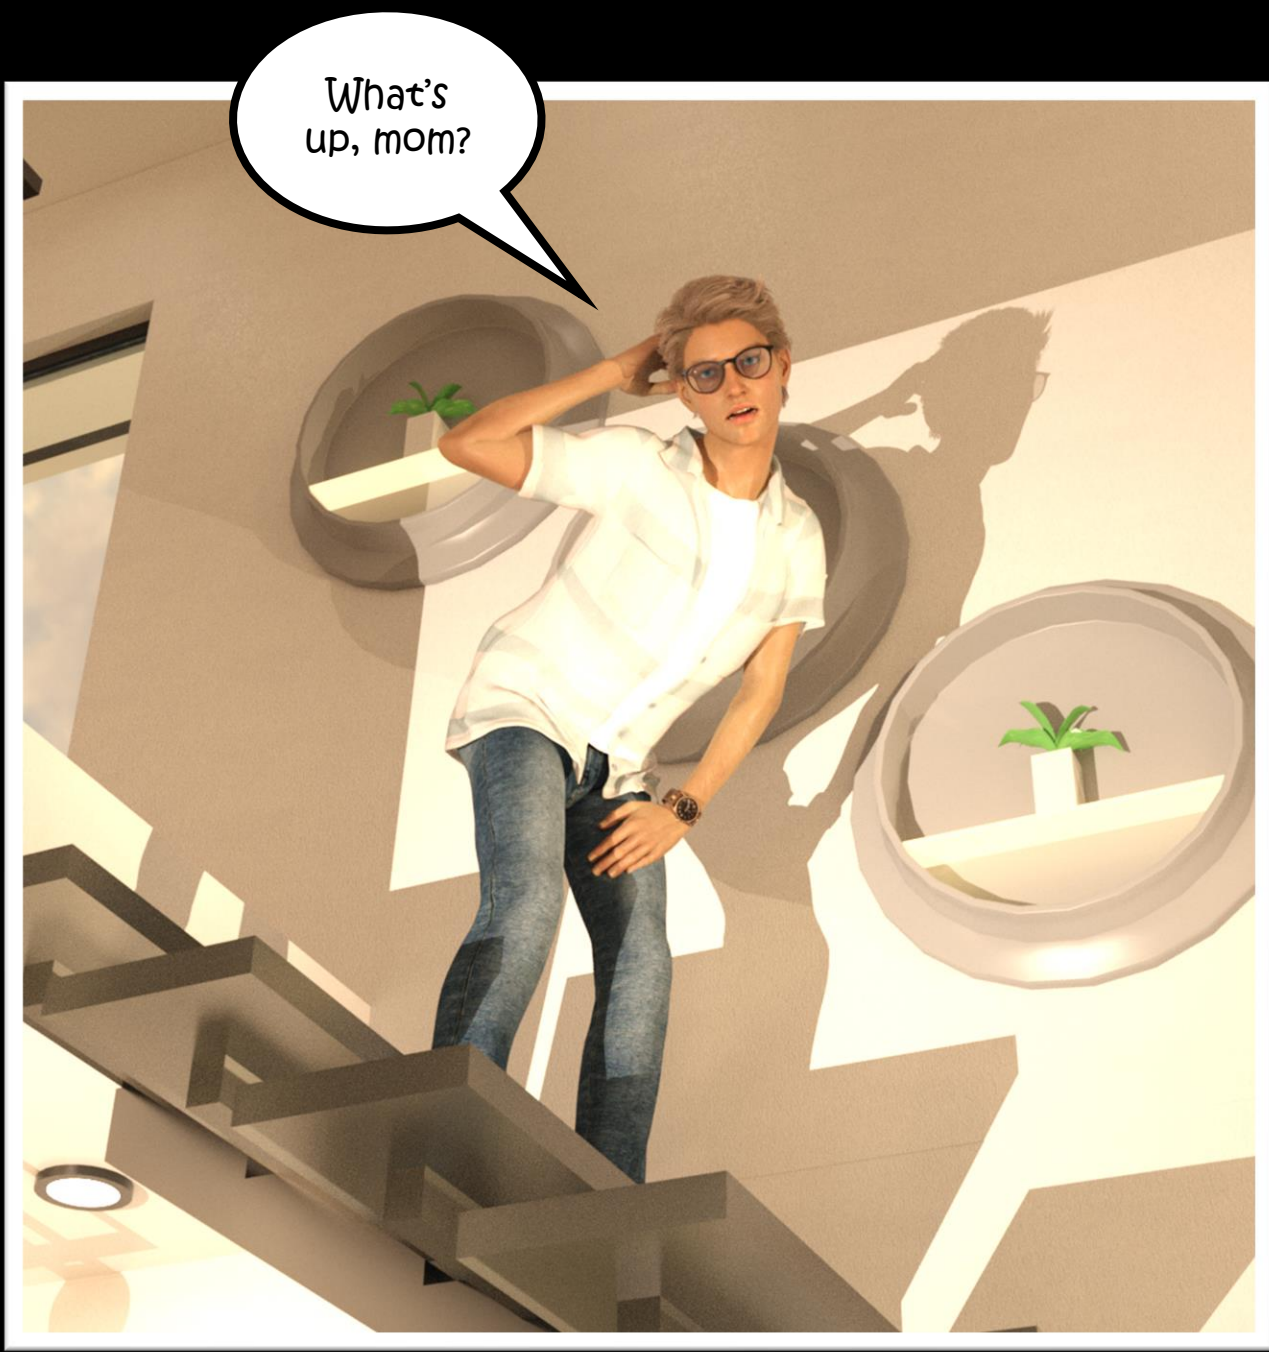

It's a nice sunny day when the Harrison's doorbell rings.

As usual, no one but the mother reacts.

But when she opens the door, nobody is there. Instead, a package lies on the stairs. Not an unusual sight. The delivery person must have left already.

Already?!

Cool!

Package for you.

That must be LEXI.

Thanks, Mom.

Lexi?

It's a new smart home assistant.

It just hit the market.

It will be awesome!

Okay chuckle. You go and have your fun.

This boy really loves his tech stuff...
He should go out more instead...

sigh

I placed the first LEXI Unit in the living room for obvious reasons. As I turn it on LEXI responds in a sweet female voice... Very cute!

LEXI, initiate.

What's the goofball doing there?

Please say "LEXI" followed by your instruction to issue commands to your LEXI unit.

LEXI is now online.

Now how does it work?

What ya doing, nerd?

Trying to connect our new home assistant to the TV.

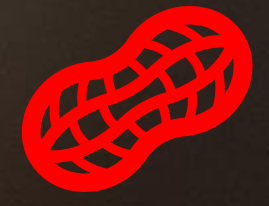

But there are no instructions ...

Huh?
Can't ya read?
Stands right there:
"Just say LEXI, open Nutflix."

Yeah, duh!
That's the command once it's set up. But I first need to connect...

NUTFLIX

Starting Nutflix now.

Affirmative.

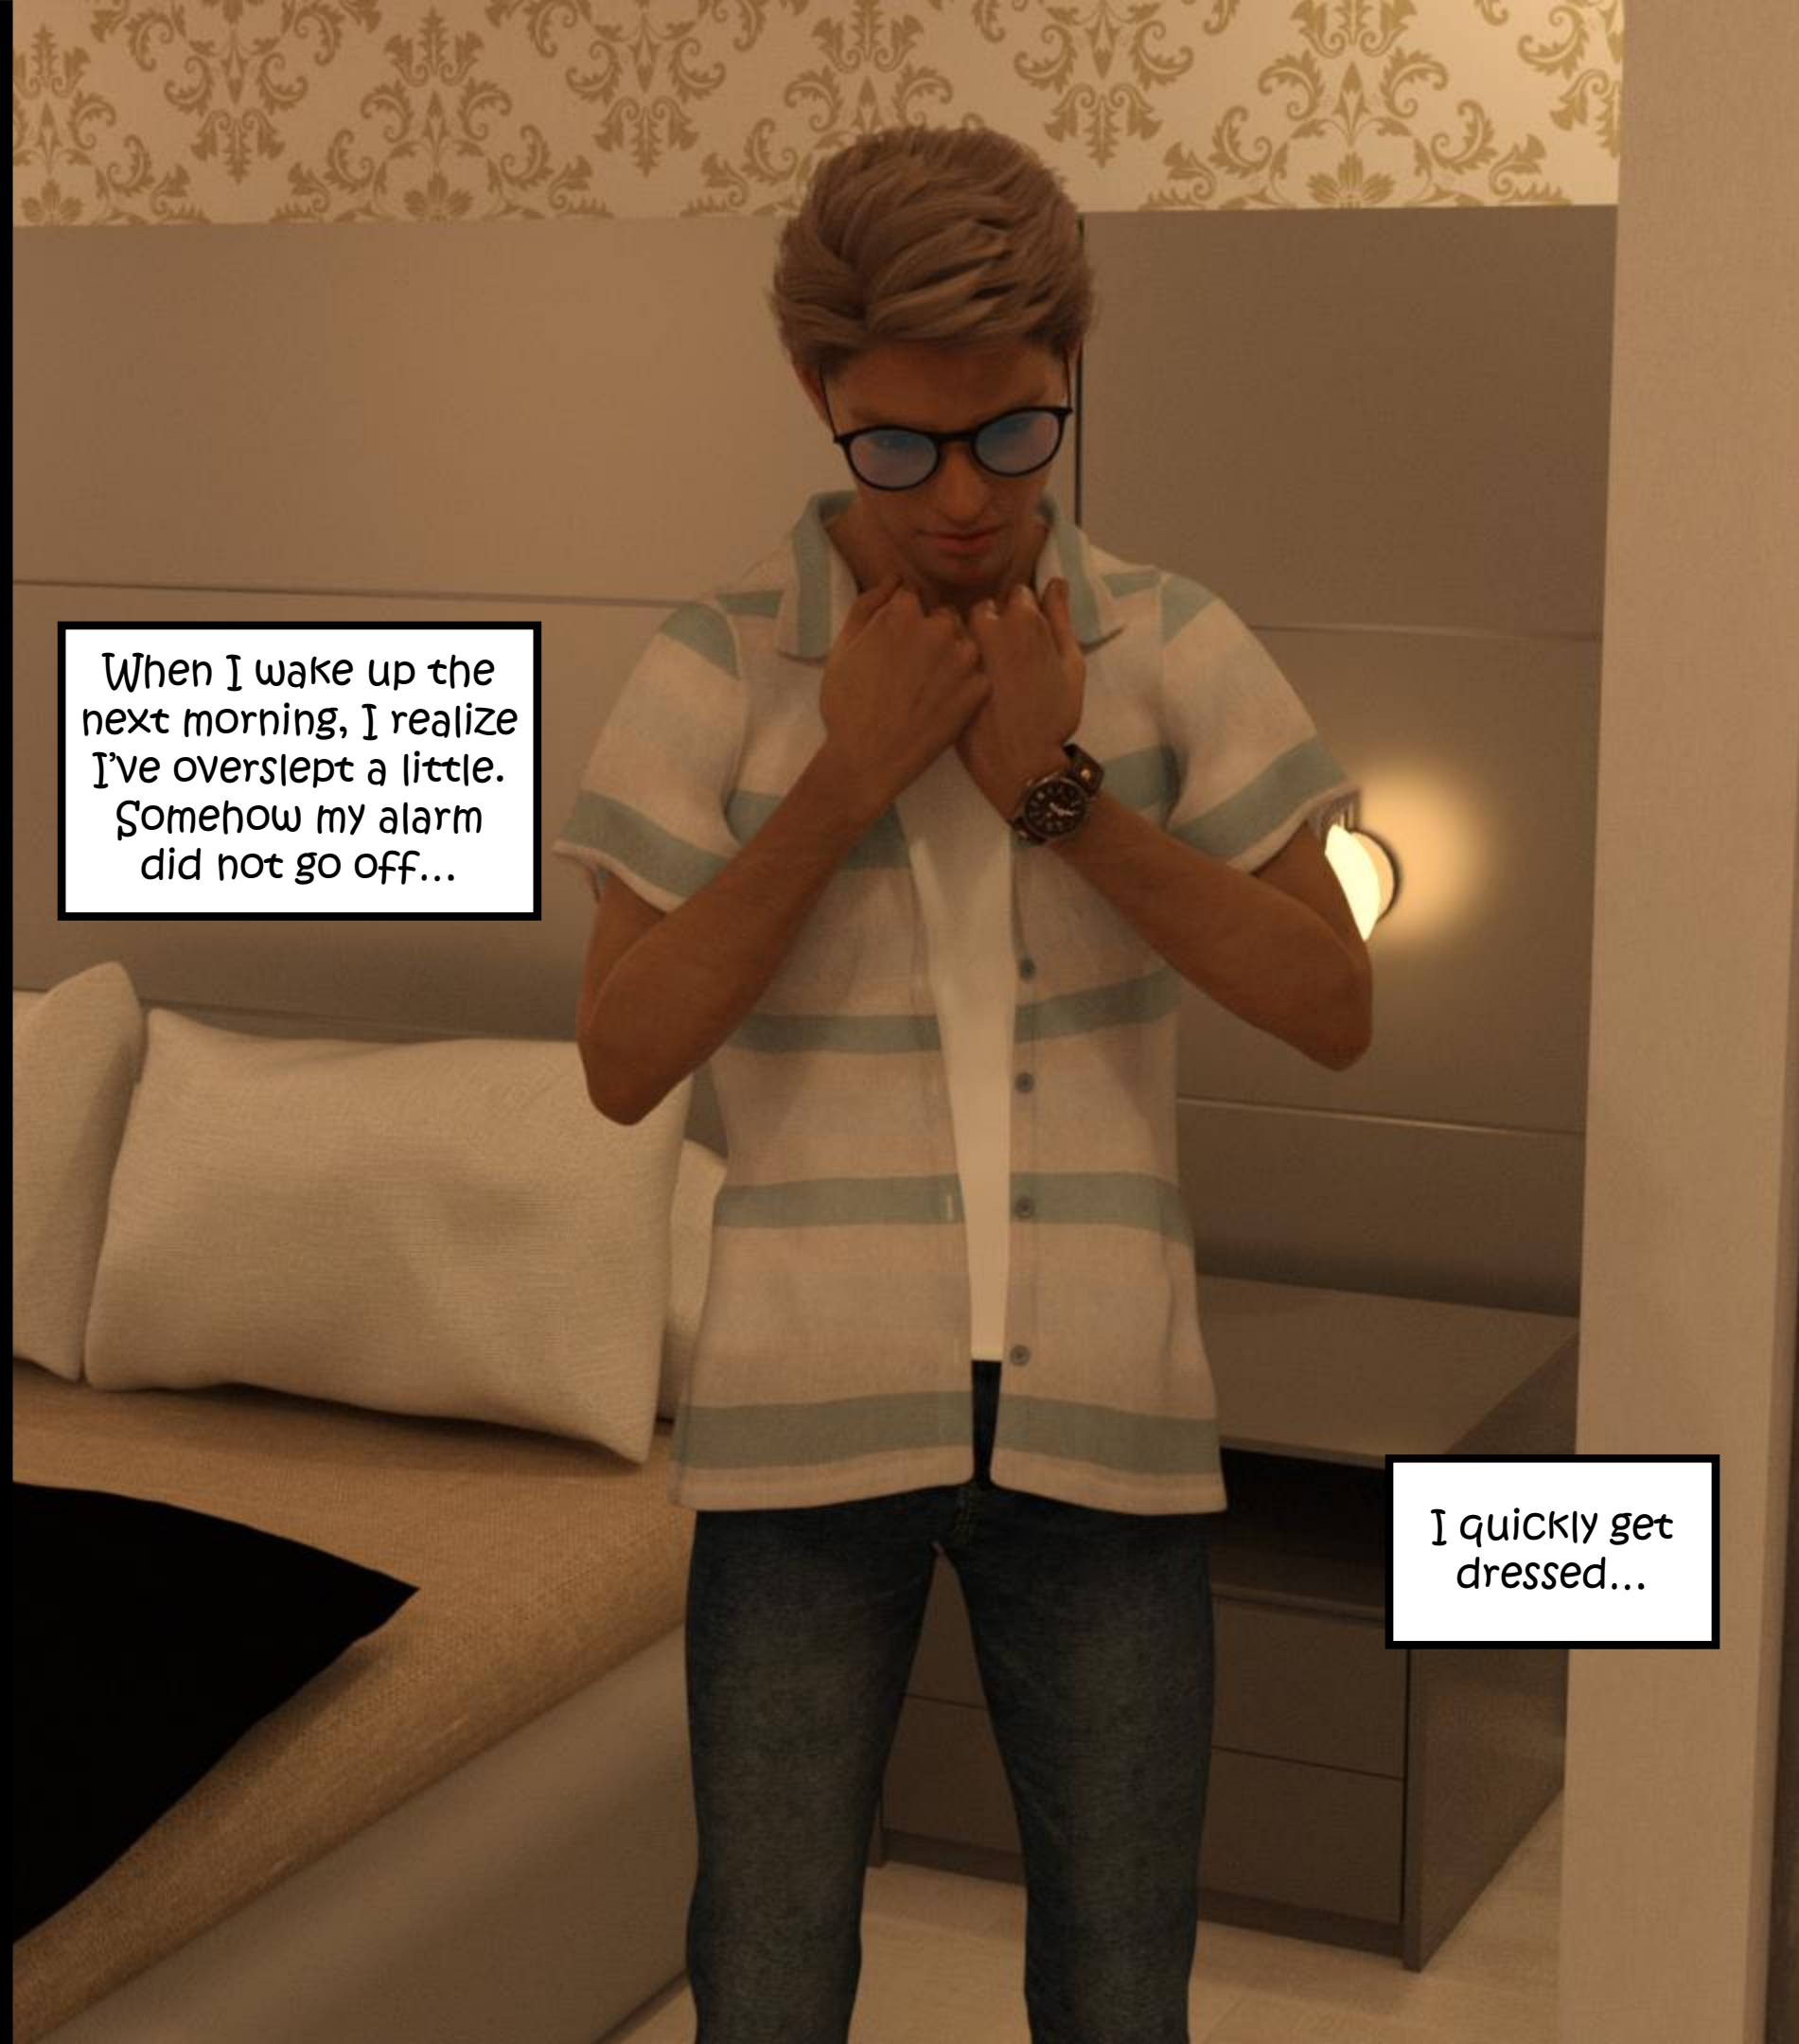

I followed my mother's "advice" and went to bed even though I would have liked to play around more with LEXI. But I don't want any trouble...

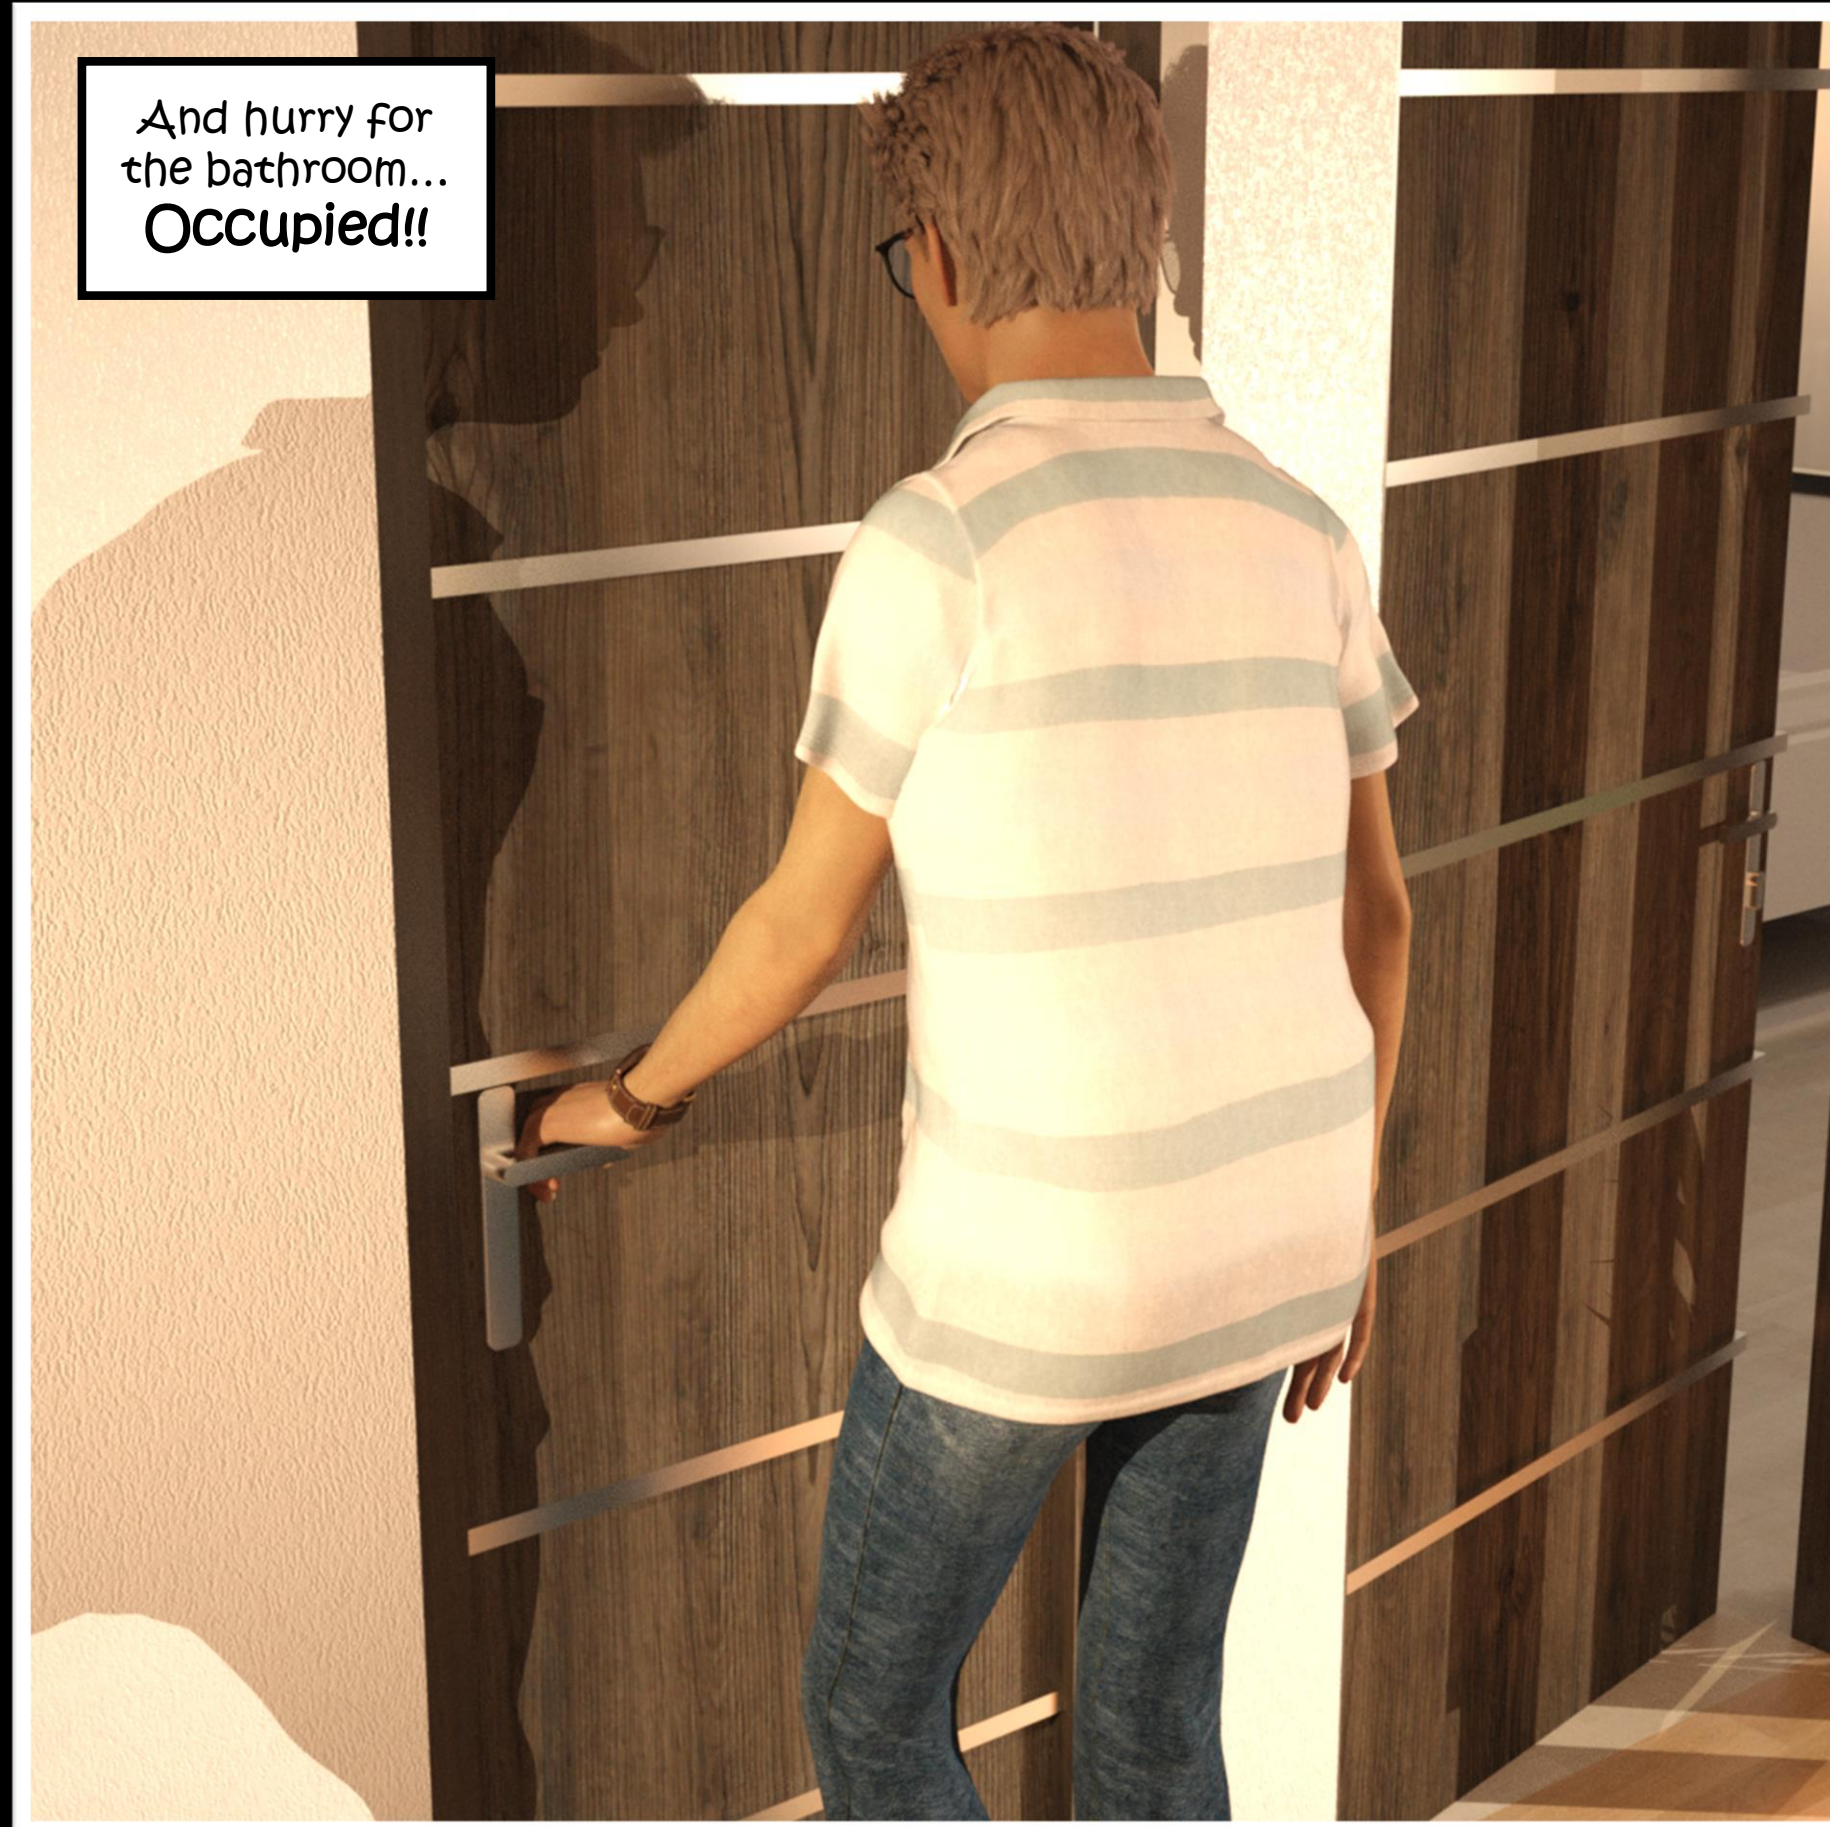

When I wake up the next morning, I realize I've overslept a little. Somehow my alarm did not go off...

I quickly get dressed...

And hurry for the bathroom...
Occupied!!

I wait patiently for a couple of minutes, but it's getting annoying!

Hey, sis!
Hurry up in there!

Knock Knock

Shuddup!

Yeah... especially for someone looking like you!

Looking pretty takes time, pipsqueak!

Shuddup
nerd!

I can't believe how long she takes in the bathroom... EVRY freaking morning!

As I'm running out of time I quickly brush my teeth.

While I did expect some kind of response, this "sarcastic" one kinda baffled me a little. But I guess it's funny solution for stuff it can't do.

Man, this sucks... Too late for breakfast...

LEXI ,turn back time 15 minutes.
chuckle

Affirmative.

*Turning time back 15 minutes.
Starting now.*

Neet feature.
At least it's more natural than "I'm sorry, I did not understand those instructions."

Suddenly I'm feeling strange...

Like seeing something out of the corner of my eye...

But unable to focus on it...

Urgh... whatever...

The feeling passed as fast it came over me.

Different view...

Turning time back 15 minutes.

Time jump in progress... please wait.

Time jump complete.

But it was strange. Suddenly I heard a strange noise...

psssscht

Like a stream of water hitting a stone or something...

Damn it. Where does that noise come from?

I turn my head towards the direction of the sound.

And I can see movement at the corner of my eye again!

There is somebody in the room with me?!

Huh?

psssscht

It's Jessica?!

No way!

Ehhh?!

What the fuck?!

leeeeeeeekkkkk

What is going on?!

I'm gonna kill you you fucking pervert!

Shortly later I find myself in the living room averting my gaze from my father and stepmother lecturing me.

I can't believe you'd break into the bathroom while your sister's in there!

What were you thinking, son?!

All the evidence was against me. I did not know what to say... I did not know what was going on either...

Thankfully we did not have much time, and while my father was preparing the car and my stepmother was packing some last things while furiously cursing, my eyes fell upon the little gadget in front of me...
LEXI.

Before "the event"... I told LEXI to turn back time... Nah... It can't be...

LEXI, turn back time 2 hours?

Affirmative.

*Turning time back two hours.
Starting now.*

One moment it was bright morning outside and the next... dark!

No way...

All the clocks in the house show it as well... I had two more hours until I have to leave for school!

About 90 minutes later, I wait for my sister as she exits the bathroom to check if she has any recollection of "the event".

What are you looking at? Looking pretty takes time, pipsqueak!

She has none!

Huh? No snappy retort? You are losing your game, bro!

Neither did my parents downstairs!

I don't know how it does it... or even why anybody would make it that powerful... but if LEXI could revert time... what else could she do?!

Come on, we are late guys.

What are you grinning at, bro?

Hurry up!

School was torture. My thoughts would always be drawn back to the morning and my desire to dive deeper into the mystery that was LEXI.

Once I finally got back home I immediately went for the living room sofa to read up on the manual but...

The instructions were useless. The "Time Jump" function was not in there...

LEXI help.

If you need help with advanced functions like "Ignore-Mode" or "Time travel" say Advanced.

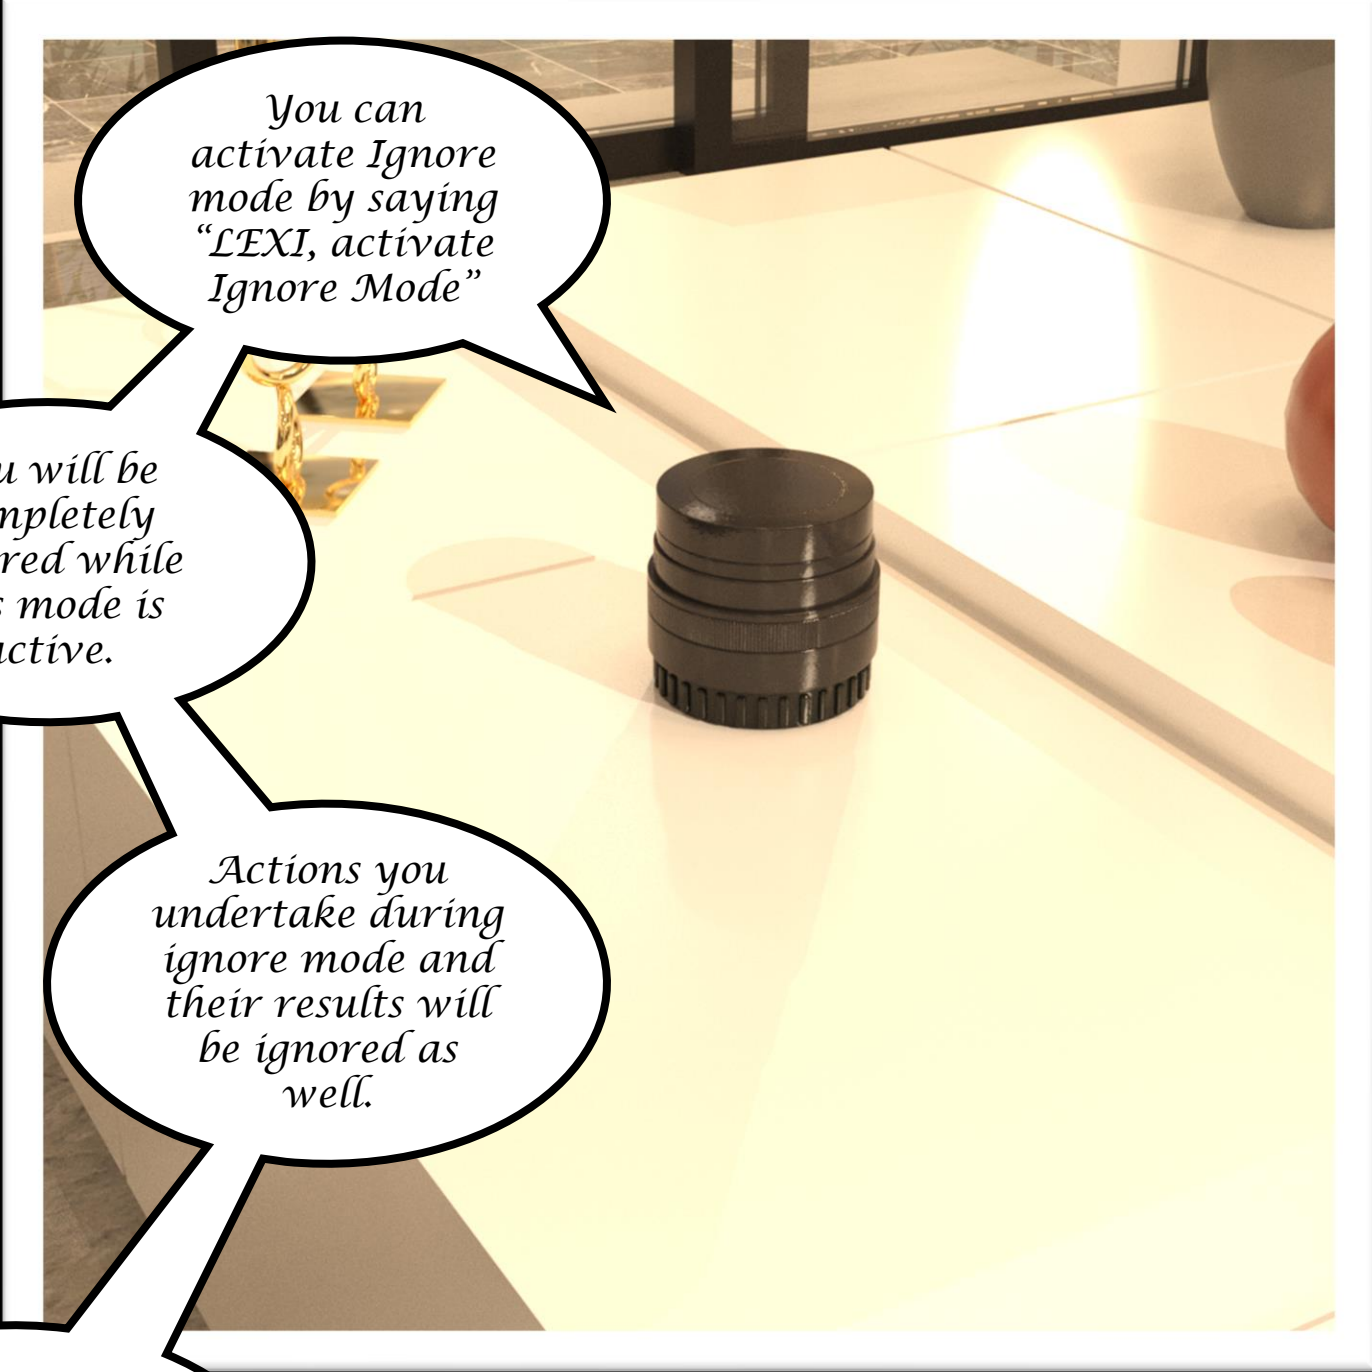

If you need help with the basic functions like turning on your TV say "Basics".

How can LEXI help?

Advanced!

LEXI listed quite a few functions and, as good as any, I decided to ask her about "Ignore Mode".

You can activate Ignore mode by saying "LEXI, activate Ignore Mode"

You will be completely ignored while this mode is active.

Actions you undertake during ignore mode and their results will be ignored as well.

To exit ignore mode say: "LEXI, deactivate Ignore Mode."

Gulp

LEXI, activate Ignore Mode.

Affirmative!
Activating Ignore Mode.

I didn't feel any different, and I was wondering how to test this, when suddenly my step-mother emerged from the kitchen door.

Oi, Mika!
I want to watch some TV. You still hugging the sofa?

You can have the sofa, mom. I can continue working upstairs.

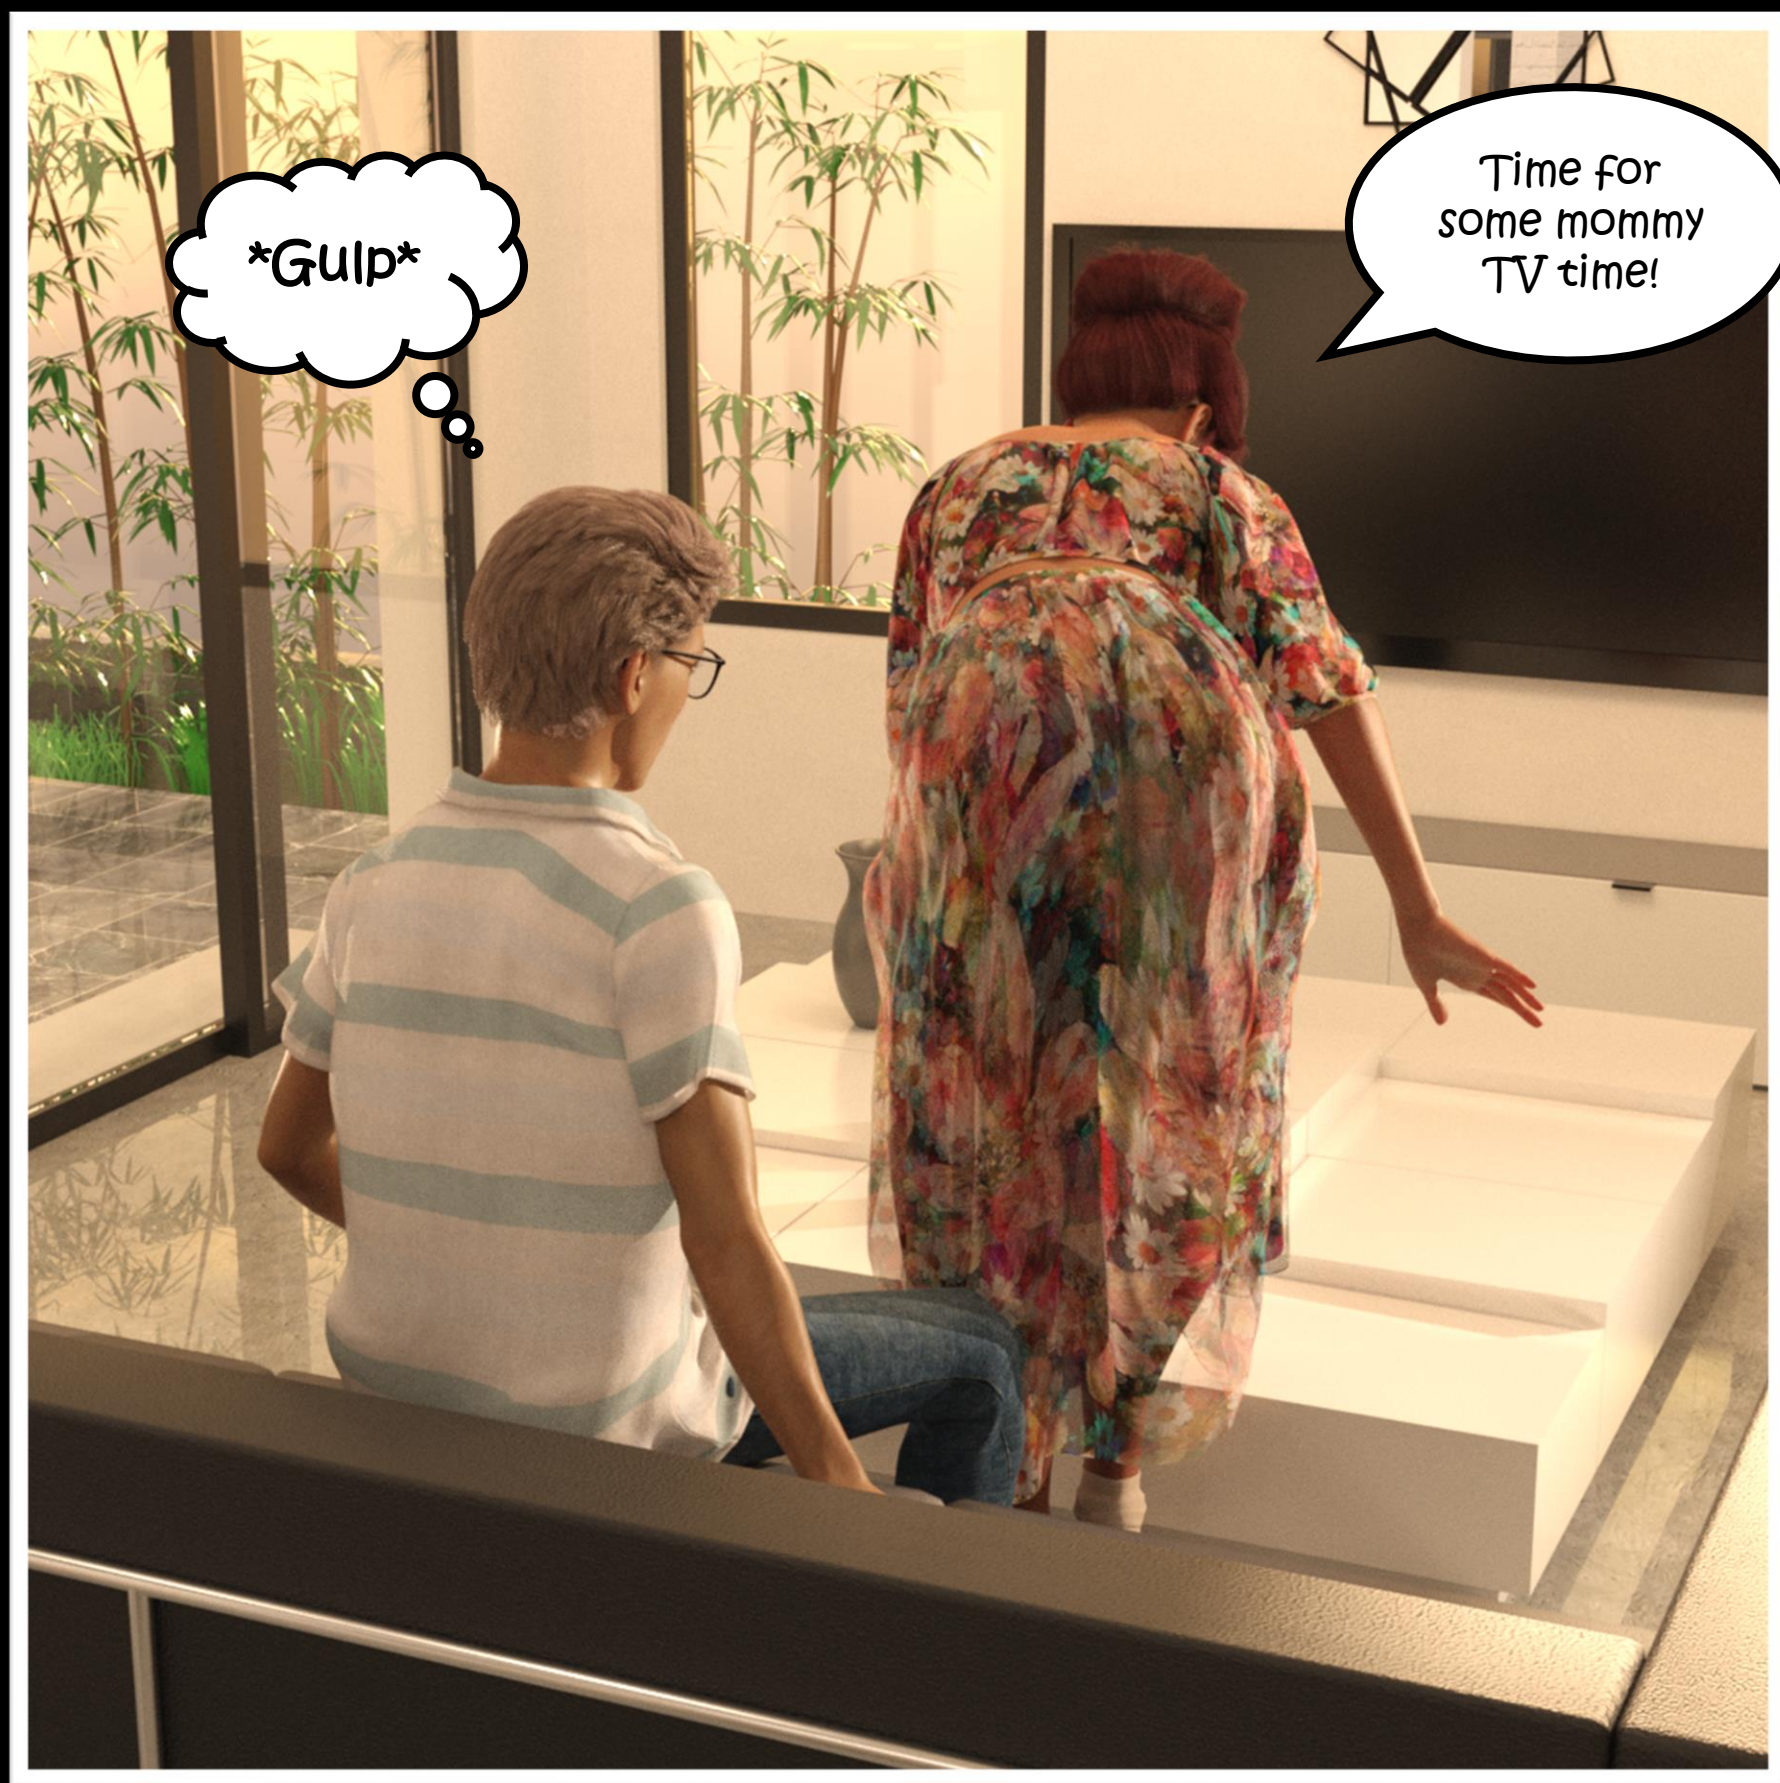

Huh?!

Huh...
Where did the boy go? I did not hear him leave...

She looked right through me!

It worked! It really worked!

My mother was sitting down and starting the TV, completely oblivious to my presence!

Wait a second.
Woah!

In the last second I move out of the way.
She would totally have sat down on me!

I wave my hand right in front of her face. She can't see the TV like this!

Jessica?

Mom?

Hello?

No reaction whatsoever!

Ha-ha-ha

Jenniffer starts laughing at one of her weird shows while I'm weighing the possibilities of my otherwise prude stepmother pranking me versus LEXI granting magical powers that make my presence vanish...

At this point, I'd say chances are about 50:50...

I mean... if I'm totally ignored then...

I could very well...

Do this...

So squishy!

grope

Wow!
My father always had good taste in women.

No reaction!

jiggle

This was no prank. Our LEXI unit really can rewind time and make anybody oblivious to my presence!!

Still befuddled I went upstairs.

And I have a great idea!

As I went by the bathroom on the way to my room, I hear my sister draw herself a bath...

With Ignore Mode I can totally play a prank on her!

Payback time!

When I hear the bathroom door open, I rush there. But it seems I was too fast – earning myself a snippy comment from my stepsister. (I had deactivated “Ignore Mode” previously.)

Showing me tongue?
Yeah, very mature sis!

"You'll never get to see a girl's body this hot!"

Hm... we'll see about that!

Nerd!

Blaenhhhh

To be continued...

Thank you for reading!

Hello, Hexxet here,

I know there was not a lot of “sexy time” in this first chapter, but I hope you liked the setting and introduction of the new home assistant unit. Mika and LEXI are setting the course for more adventures next chapter! 😊
