Whew, this almost feels like cheating!" Miranda examined her well-trained body in the mirror of the gym, that was almost empty. The protein-powder her friend had recommended to her had really worked wonders!

Miranda had always been a very thin girl and no matter how much she trained, it seemed that she never managed to build up any mass or muscles. With the new Alpyus-powder, her body now looked curvy and athletic. She was worried at first, because of the fact only the Alpyus bulls took it to "beef up" quickly, but the result she was seeing now in front of her was surely proof enough.

"Looks like even my boobs grew a bit" Miranda grinned and squeezed her tits in front of the mirror. "That top feels kinda tight now, maybe I should double the dose again and see if I can push it some more"

Miranda lifted her arms to bind her hairs together while she proudly looked at her new trained abs and wide hips.

Her skin was still wet from the training, and the sweat glistened in the warm light of the gym. Miranda blinked and shook her head. Her nose was tickling and she felt a bit dizzy out of a sudden..

"M-maybe I should take a sit som.. whe.. Hachoo!"

Miranda felt her whole body jerking. As she re-opened her eyes, something was wrong with the reflection in the mirror. At first, she was not sure what had happened, so she came a little closer towards the mirrors:

“What the.. what happened to my no.. – Hachoo!” Long strands of drool dripped from her nose, which had turned into a weird, long snout, covered in a thick, leathery and grey skin. “Is this? -” Her voice sounded weird. Like someone was keeping her nostrils closed. Her upper lip seemed to have fused with whatever was growing out of her face, making it impossible to hold back her spit anymore!

Drooling and clumsy, Miranda looked down her body: It was like every part of it was still growing bigger... no.. it was swelling up!

Only seconds later, Miranda felt the fabric of her sports-bra giving in to her growing tits. Her swollen, stiff nipples pushed through the dark fabric on her chest while large holes appeared, slowly ripping her top apart.

“What’s happening to mee ?!” A pressure started to grow in her crotch, as her belly expanded and grew fatter, her hips became wider, stressing the fabric of her sweatpants.

The tips of her sport-shoes popped open, as Miranda saw her toes, growing out of them. They looked obscenely swollen and bulky, covered in a thick grey leather-skin.

“M-My hands!” It seemed like her middle- and ring-fingers were fusing, slowly creating a massive new one, while her remaining fingers grew fatter to match the size of them. Grey skin was growing over them... leathery skin... almost like that of an elephant.

"Am I... turning into an Alpyus?!" Scared, but also driven by a weird fascination, Miranda started to inspect closer what was happening to her body:

Her bra had ripped and was only hanging around her chest while her now massive tits were dangling in front of her. The nipples on each of them had grown massively big and felt ultra soft and sensitive.

"Thats .. ugh... kinda good!" Miranda's thick fingers carefully stroke over her new nipples, which was sending shivers down her spine.

Her slip and sweatpants had ripped to shreds by her thick legs, and while Miranda was unable to see what had happened to her pussy because of her new, massive belly, she tried to keep her balance on her new, bulk feet.

Her nose had turned into a full trunk in the meantime, a few of her teeth had transformed into long tusks that slowly grew out on each side.

"H-how much bigger can I get?!" Miranda tried to throw a glance at her butt, which had almost tripled in size by now. A tickling in her spine told her that something was growing right out of her tailbone and quickly became a moveable extension that dangled over her new, massive butt-crack.

It was difficult to keep balance in this new body, since everything on it was trying to drag Miranda down, while her feet had less and less room to stand on. Her massive toes grew shorter and shorter, slowly fusing with the rest of her feet into one, thick elephant-foot.

Now able to control her new trunk, Miranda raised her arms to support her pose and find a secure stand.

Almost all of her former human skin had been replaced with leathery elephant skin by now, which felt dry and rough, but also protective and robust.

It didn't took long until Miranda noticed something else going on - this time, between her legs. Though she was unable to see what had happened to her pussy, she tried to get closer to the mirrors and lift up her massive belly.

"Hngnn... this... gawd, this feels good!" Mirandas body started to shiver in a weird mix of lust and excitement. In the mirror, she noticed that something was slowly pushing out of her vulva, causing an almost constant, long-lasting-orgasm.

"Hoo gaaawd... yees!" Miranda realized that her clit was slowly swelling into a long, throbbing organ that was quickly growing into a large penis. She pressed her big hand against the mirror to stabilize herself, while the hard prick grew bigger and bigger, already leaking long strands of pre at the tip.

Carefully, Miranda used her other hand to welcome her new member. Slowly, her palm closed around the long, thick shaft that was pulsing with hot blood. "This... this feels so incredible...!" She started to perform a pumping movement. Her newly grown balls dangled in the warm air between her legs where her pussy had been only minutes before.

"They should have noted that male-steroid-effect somewhere Ugh..." with every stroke of her hand, her cock became harder. In lust, Miranda started to carefully touch one of her massive nipples... "So good... ugh... could do this all day!"

Her pumping intensified." So this is how it feels to jerk off.... ugh... shit... there are some dirty thoughts in my mind right now..." Her balls slapped against her inner tights, as her stiff cock started to twitch.

"Yes.... YES... So hot, I cant believe it!" Finally, Miranda came, as her elephant cock squirted a gush of hot liquid all over the place. "Phew... that was it?" Miranda was a little confused. She looked down on her cock, which was slowly becoming flaccid. "Hrmph, As a girl I was used to longer lasting-fun" ... "on the other side... I think this thing works more often than just once a night..."
